

A collage of historical documents and photographs. In the background, there are several old, sepia-toned photographs. One prominent photo shows a group of people, possibly a family, in a room. Another photo shows a person in a dark coat. There are also documents with cursive handwriting. One document has the word "CERTIFICATE" and "MARRIAGE" visible. Another document has the word "grant" and "bargain" visible. The overall theme is historical research or genealogy.

The Book Review Digest, 2005      Southern West Cameroon Revisited Volume Two Ndi, Anthony, 2014-03-11 This book argues that Southern Cameroons up to the late 1960s had extensively developed an evolved mature political culture It was amazingly led by a range of simple visionary austere honest peace loving and realistic leaders almost without exception vintage products of their epoch Distinguished by good governance throughout it organized frequent free fair and transparent elections peaceful handover of power and enjoyed free primary and adult education It was further crowned with an ideal efficient civil service literally corruption free In fact the period 1955 1968 in the history of Southern Cameroons qualifies as a Golden Age for that nostalgic state whose citizens were repeatedly referred to as nice peace loving loyal good and hospitable people by administrators missionaries visitors and those who got to know them closely The most remarkable observation however was that finally made by Malcolm Milne the greatest critic who noted that during his last couple of years in the Southern Cameroons administration he dealt with People of high intelligence who knew exactly what they wanted Of the civil servants he maintains that they had greatly enriched his time in the colonial service There was something very special about that corps their service was their watch word This superlative description by Malcolm Milne was being made of a combination of the people of the present North and South West Regions whom he saw as a socio cultural economic and political unit It is therefore obvious that from 1955 1968 Southern West Cameroon came close towards becoming an ideal state      The Odyssey of Ibn Battuta Professor David Waines, David Waines, 2010-02-28 Ibn Battuta was without doubt one of the world's truly great travellers Born in 14th century Morocco and a contemporary of Marco Polo Ibn Battuta has left us an account in his own words of his remarkable journeys throughout the Islamic world and beyond journeys punctuated by adventure and peril and stretching from his home in Tangiers to Zaytun in faraway China Whether sojourning in Delhi and the Maldives wandering through the mazy streets of Cairo and Damascus or contesting with pirates and shipwreck the indefatigable Ibn Battuta brings to vivid life a medieval world brimming with marvel and mystery Carefully observing the great diversity of civilizations which he encountered Ibn Battuta exhibits an omnivorous interest in such matters as food and drink religious differences between Christians Hindus and Shi'a Muslims ideas about purity and impurity disease women and sex Recounting the many miracles which its author claims to have experienced personally his al rihla or Travelogue is a fascinating mosaic of mysticism and reportage offering a prototype magic realism David Waines discusses the subtleties of the al rihla revealing all the wonders of Ibn Battuta's world to the modern reader This is a gripping treatment of the life and times of one of history's most daring and at the same time most human discoverers      The Arab World Today Morroe Berger, 1962 Chapter on men women and families asserts homosexuality does not seem to be so widespread today as Arab Medieval poetry suggests it might have been in earlier eras p 103 Misha Schutt      Routledge Handbook on the Sciences in Islamicate Societies Sonja Brentjes, 2023-01-24 The Routledge Handbook on the Sciences in Islamicate Societies provides a comprehensive survey on science in the Islamic world from the 8th to the 19th century Across six sections a group of subject experts discuss and analyze scientific practices across a wide range of Islamicate societies The authors take into consideration several contexts in which science was practiced ranging from intellectual traditions and persuasions to institutions such as courts schools hospitals and observatories to the materiality of scientific practices including the arts and craftsmanship Chapters also devote attention to scientific practices of minority communities in Muslim majority societies and Muslim minority groups in societies outside the Islamicate world thereby allowing readers to better understand the opportunities and constraints of scientific practices under varying local conditions Through replacing Islam with Islamicate societies the book opens up ways to explain similarities and differences between diverse societies ruled by Muslim dynasties This handbook will be an invaluable resource for both established academics and students looking for an introduction to the field It will appeal to those involved in the study of the history of science the history of ideas intellectual history social or cultural history Islamic studies Middle East and African studies including history and studies of Muslim communities in Europe and South and East Asia
