The Ancient Aztecs People Of The Ancient World:

Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum Catherine M. O'Callaghan,2011 This resource uniquely offers preservice and inservice teachers templates for using quality children's literature to implement six themes across grades K-8. The themes are based on national curriculum standards and text sets are carefully selected to facilitate discussion, analysis and problem solving across the grades. Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum provides teachers with a guide to using multilayered texts to facilitate students' attainment of critical literacy. It is designed to be a supplemental text to guide teachers in designing literacy instruction. The instructional sequence includes collaborative inquiry activities across the curriculum to extend each theme to math, science, technology and social studies. Teachers are shown how to incorporate family literacy with a component entitled Home School Connections and to differentiate instruction for individual learners with a section entitled On Your Own Activities. The theme concludes with a critical literacy activity that applies the content knowledge of the theme with collaborative inquiry. A unique feature of the handbook is the emphasis on performance based assessment with each instructional sequence containing two rubrics for the teacher to implement. The instructional sequences are meant as models for teachers to use in developing their own themes in order to facilitate critical literacy. These models can be adjusted to fit the reading level of the students as teachers become more familiar with the text's structure and their students' needs.

The World's History Illuminated Israel Smith Clare,1897    Wonders of the Ancient World Charles Walker,1988 The ancient Romans considered that the world contained seven great man-made wonders but of these only the pyramids remain to give us a glimpse of their magnificence. There are however many other great monuments and buildings which have survived and which testify to the immense creativity of ancient civilizations. They are to be found at sites all around the globe, stunning modern observers with the breadth of their conception and the ingenuity of their construction. Included amongst them are such different structures as the two thousand miles of the Great Wall of China, the intricate proportions of the Acropolis of Athens and the stepped pyramids built by the Aztecs at Teotihuacan. Wonders of the Ancient World is a survey of the most imposing masterpieces of architecture and art produced by the great early civilizations of the Mediterranean, the Middle East, Asia and Central and South America. Charles Walker describes their construction and explains their use and the cultures that produced them. Colour photographs show the full splendour of what remains on each site while meticulous reconstructions and plans give an accurate impression of some of the most important cities with which they were associated.
