Reconceptualising Unaccompanied Child Asylum Seekers and the Law Jennifer L. Whelan, 2022-09-30

Unaccompanied child asylum seekers are amongst the world's most vulnerable populations and their numbers are increasing. The intersection of their age, their seeking asylum and separation from their parents creates a specific and acute triple burden of vulnerability. Their precariousness has long been recognised in international human rights law. Yet human rights based responses have been subordinated to progressive global securitisation of irregular migration through interception, interdiction, extraterritorial processing and immigration detention. Such an approach necessitates an urgent paradigm shift in how we comprehend their needs as children, the impact of punitive border control laws on them and the responsibility of States to these children when they arrive at their borders seeking asylum. This book reconceptualises the relationship between unaccompanied child asylum seekers and States. It proposes a new conceptual framework by applying international human rights law, childhood studies and vulnerability theory scholarship in analysing State obligations to respond to these children. This framework incorporates a robust analysis of the operation and impact of laws on vulnerable populations, a taxonomy for articulating the gravity of any consequent harms and a method to prioritise recommendations for reform. The book then illustrates the framework's utility using Australia's treatment of unaccompanied children as a case study. This book illuminates key learnings from human rights law, childhood studies and vulnerability theory and transforms them into a new roadmap for law reform. As such, it will be a valuable practice-based resource for practitioners, non-government organisations, advocates, policymakers and the general public interested in advocating for the rights of vulnerable populations, as well as for academics, researchers and students of human rights law, refugee law, childhood studies and vulnerability studies. The Journal of Education, 1899 Pretoria Student Law Review 2020-14-2 Simon Motshweni, 2020-01-01 About the publication

Honoured to present to you the reader the 2020 edition of the Pretoria Student Law Review (PSLR), an annual publication which is the pride of the best law faculty in Africa according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings. The University of Pretoria's Law Faculty ranks in the top 100 law faculties in the world, a feat unequalled in Africa. The PSLR is a student-driven law review that creates an interactive forum for students, academics and legal professionals to discuss topical legal matters that challenge the status quo. At the beginning of this year lay the fantasy of newness, presenting an opportunity to do great things. But as I reflect on the journey leading to this publication, I understand that the 2020 edition of the PSLR had an engine that ran on hope, faith, dedication, perseverance, commitment and hard work. Our predecessors had a vision to create a boldly outlined legacy for the PSLR; they spearheaded the setting up of a system that would last the lifespan of the PSLR. Today, some 13 years after the first edition of the PSLR, South Africa, the continent and the world at large are on the cusp of a new era, socially, economically and politically. When my journey as Editor in Chief commenced, I imagined the PSLR as a ship whose captain was myself. Customarily, it is easy to be a captain of a ship in calm seas, but unlike most of my predecessors I have had to be the captain of a ship through the heftiest of storms The world was not truly prepared to face challenges presented by the Covid 19 let alone the PSLR In the wake of the 4IR and this new age of technology sailing this ship to success was still a heavy task to complete It is therefore with great honour to have been able to successfully complete the task for which we the 14th cohort of the Editorial Board were called for We have upheld the esteemed reputations that have been left by our predecessors Fittingly I wish to applaud my team for their inspiring commitment outstanding contribution and service in maintaining the elevated standard of the PSLR For indeed it is a publication par excellence Amidst the storms we have spearheaded the establishment of a free floating PSLR Collection in the OR Tambo Law Library This collection is dedicated to house all published PSLR editions dating since the inception of the PSLR in 2007 We have established and strengthened relations with other Law Faculties in the country and even beyond We published the very first special edition of the PSLR a focused edition that covers a critical issue brought before the South African Law Deans Association the Decolonisation of Legal Education We have established a system by which all authors who publish with us ought to have an ORCID iD We have adopted internal regulations that outline the principles that govern the Editorial Board We have spearheaded the adoption and implementation of a policy that forces us to comply with DHET Standards in order to be a DHET Accredited Journal so as to encourage and foster a student culture of critical research Jostina Mtshweni Clayton Mtshweni Lucas Berto Mateus Stephine Mashilo and Lerato Mashilo words cannot begin to express my gratitude for all the support you have given me throughout this journey Thank you for keeping me sane through one of the toughest times of my publishing career Thank you for the endless amount of support and the unconditional love you give me always You are the power oil that kept this engine running all by the sufficient grace of God I hereby pass the baton and entrust the next Editor in Chief with the difficult task of running faster and running a better marathon than myself and my predecessors To you future author I implore you to start writing for the water does not flow until the faucet is turned on To you the reader Jurgen Zwecker was right enjoy the read without fear to question what is in front of you for that is the only way we as scholars grow Simon Motshweni Editor in Chief 2020 Table of Contents Editors note by Simon Motshweni Statutory utility rights to realise access to services as a characteristic of adequate housing by Gustav Muller The experiences of women and barriers for career advancement in tertiary institutions in a South African context by Bernardete Mendes I ve changed says South African law Has the judiciary opened up to black women lawyers by Cebolenkosi Makhaye Sexual orientation and gender identities SOGI law and social change by Chanelle van der Linde Game of Thrones The battle of the Mphephus by Gudani Tshikota Critical race theory and feminist legal theory Perspectives on transformation of the judiciary by Hayley C Warring International law rules relating to migration arising from rising sea levels by Keketso G Kgomoosotho The constitutionality of warrantless search and seizure operations by Khalipha Shange The constitutionality of warrantless search and seizure operations by Lehlohonolo January A comparative analysis of the proposed mandatory nature of employment

the African Women s Protocol 2014 no 2 The scope of the Journal extends beyond the supranational dimension of human rights Over the years many contributions explored aspects of the domestic human rights situation in countries such as the Democratic Republic of the Congo Eswatini Ethiopia Lesotho Malawi Mauritius Nigeria South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe From time to time the specific focus sections also veered towards domestic human rights protection See for instance the focus on 20 years of the South African Constitution 2014 no 2 on adolescent sexual and reproductive rights in the African region 2017 no 2 on the rule of law in sub Saharan Africa 2018 no 1 and on dignity taking and dignity restorations 2018 no 2     CTA Journal ,1956     Research in Education ,1970     Child Marriage, Rights and Choice Hoko Horii,2021-11-18 This book addresses the issue of agency in relation to child marriage In international campaigns against child marriage there is a puzzle of agency While international human rights institutions celebrate girls exercise of their agency not to marry they do not recognize their agency to marry Child marriage usually defined as any formal marriage or informal union where one or both of the parties are under 18 years of age is normally considered as forced which is to say that it is assumed that are not capable of consenting to marriage This book however re examines this assumption through a detailed socio legal examination of child marriage in Indonesia Eliciting the multiple competing frameworks according to which child marriage takes place the book considers the complex reasons why children marry Structural explanations such as lack of opportunities and oppressive social structures are important but not exhaustive explanations Exploring the subjective reasons by listening to children s perspectives their stories show that many of them decide to marry for love desire to belong to the community and for new opportunities and hopes The book then demonstrates how the child marriage framework and indeed the human rights framework in general is constructed on too narrow a vision of human agency One that cannot but fail to respect and promote the agency of all regardless of gender race religion and age This book will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners in the areas of children s rights legal anthropology and socio legal studies
