Personal Note

Hi Thomas,

I want to take a brief moment to send an Office Personal Note your way. These notes are all about creating a sense of connection amidst the hustle and bustle of our professional world. They open up a line of informal and friendly conversation, even in our highly professional milieu. And that's exactly what I'd like to achieve here.

Just want to extend my appreciation for the work you've been doing. I have noticed your tireless efforts and wanted to say that your dedication doesn't go unnoticed. It's colleagues like you who keep our brand's unique identity vibrant, dynamic, and truly exemplary.

This note might be brief, much shorter than our usual, formal lines of professional communication - but I hope every word resonates with the sincerity behind them. You are vibrant and integral part of our team.
Keep up your great work.

Regards,
H. Larson

The Personal Note Commitment Program:

Social Justice and Systemic Family Therapy Training Lindsey A. Nice, Christie Eppler, 2023-05-31 The book examines the lived experiences of systemic family therapy educators. It addresses the issues of power and justice that they face in family therapy training programs including their teaching experiences with students, interactions with faculty, and challenges within academic institutions. It describes how family therapy programs attempt to incorporate cultural awareness with mixed results, e.g., focusing only on how to work with diverse clients or not supporting faculty from across social locations. The book explores the ways in which family therapy educators with intersecting marginalized identities continue to be oppressed across different areas of academia. The book addresses issues of power that systemic family therapy educators face within the academia itself at three different levels: Personal interactions with students that create more complete understanding of issues of power; Professional interactions with colleagues that provide support and accountability; Political interventions aimed at changing the larger academic institution. Chapters focus on countering unjust practices in academic settings. Authors reflect on personal experiences across these three levels and then offer concrete suggestions for intervention. These include teaching experiences or meaningful interactions with students that support empowerment or increased awareness; relationships with colleagues that promote accountability and growth; and needed changes or challenges to the larger structure of academia. Social Justice and Systemic Family Therapy Training is an essential resource for clinicians, therapists, and practitioners as well as researchers, professors, and graduate students in family studies, clinical psychology, and public health, as well as all interrelated disciplines.

However, many of these people do not feel fulfilled in their life tasks. They feel that life is a struggle irrespective of all they have been gifted with and how great and marvellous their dreams seem. This is because no matter how talented you are or how great a dreamer you are, if you do not overcome any self-limiting mindset and barriers, you will be stopped by the challenges of everyday life. You will not achieve self-mastery and will fail to live a life of significance. Unstoppable You: Overcoming your self-limiting mindset and barriers was written with everyone in this class in mind. The overall objective of this book is to help you navigate the road from self-doubt to a life of significance, telling real life stories and sharing experiences. This book does not promise to be a magic wand to transform you into a person of great success at the snap of the fingers, but it will surely awaken the real you. It will challenge and inspire you. Most importantly, it will set you on a journey to a better you, a you that is UNSTOPPABLE, no matter what life and the world throws at you.
