The sentence the dread sentence of death was the last of distinct accentuation which reached my ears. After that the sound of the inquisitorial voices seemed merged in one dreamy indeterminate hum. It conveyed to my soul the idea of revolution perhaps from its association in fancy with the burr of a mill wheel. This only for a brief period for presently I heard no more. Yet for a while I saw but with how terrible an exaggeration I saw the lips of the black robed judges. They appeared to me white whiter than the sheet upon which I trace these words and thin even to grotesqueness thin with the intensity of their expression of firmness of immovable resolution of stern contempt of human torture. Ray Harryhausen Presents: Edgar Allan Poe's The Pit and the Pendulum Edgar Allan Poe and Marc Lougee, 2012 The Pit and the Pendulum is an adaptation of Edgar Allan Poe's classic story of condemnation, hope and redemption.
