New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Money, Language, and Thought Marc Shell, 1993-09 In Money Language and Thought Marc Shell explores the interactions between linguistic and economic production as they inform discourse from Chretien de Troyes to Heidegger Close readings of works such as the medieval grail legends The Merchant of Venice Goethe's Faust and Poe's The Gold Bug reveal how discourse has responded to the dissociation of symbol from thing characteristic of money and how the development of increasingly symbolic currencies has involved changes in the meaning of meaning Pursuing his investigations into the modern era Shell points out significant internalization of economic form in Kant Hegel and Heidegger He demonstrates how literature and philosophy have been driven to account self critically for a money of the mind that pervades all discourse and concludes the book with a discomfiting thesis about the cultural and political limits of literature and philosophy in the modern world
