The Person Inside

JG Myers

The Person Inside:

Yuendumu Everyday Yasmine Musharbash, 2008 This book explores intimacy immediacy and mobility as the core principles underpinning contemporary everyday life in a central Australian Aboriginal settlement. It analyses an everyday shaped through the interplay between a not so distant hunter gatherer past and the realities of living in a first world nation state by considering such apparently mundane matters as What is a camp How does that relate to houses Who sleeps where and next to whom Why does this constantly change What and where are the public private boundaries And most importantly How do Indigenous people relate to each other Employing a refreshingly readable writing style Musharbash includes rich vignettes including narrative portraits of five Warlpiri women. Musharbash's descriptions and analyses of their actions and the situations they find themselves in transcend the general and illuminate the personal. She invites readers to ponder the questions raised by the book not just at an abstract level but as they relate to people's actual lives. In doing so it expands our understandings of Indigenous Australia

The Corporatization of Student Affairs Daniel K. Cairo, Victoria

Cabal, 2021-11-03 This volume explores the tensions between the student affairs foundation of holistic student development and the changing culture of corporatization. While there is ample evidence of neoliberalism in the academic affairs of higher education there is very little to no research to understand how neoliberalism is driving the corporatization of student affairs. This book argues that understanding neoliberalism in student affairs is crucial to student success and the student experience. The authors provide contextualized examples for understanding our positionality within the neoliberal system as well as practical recommendations on resisting market values as common sense thereby helping to preserve the profession and to imagine a new one centered on people equity and justice
