The Planting Of Christianity In Africa Iv:

The Planting of Christianity in Africa IV Charles Pelham Groves, 2002 A great four volume history presenting in comprehensive perspective within the limits of a single narrative the various attempts to plant and develop Christianity in Africa The method of presentation is chronological rather than regional taking the whole story forward stage by stage rather than dealing completely with one region at a time As Groves shows in his continental survey Christianity is now in the midst of its third great attempt to occupy Africa Volume I to 1840 deals with the land and its people Christianity in the Apostolic Age the early church in North Africa Islam slavery the formation of Missionary Societies and the arrival of David Livingstone Volume II 1840 1878 covers the years in which the Christian faith following the trail blazing of Livingstone and Stanley in Central Africa and the Congo respectively leaped ahead and became one of the formative factors in African life Volume III 1878 1914 continues the account of the European penetration into Africa and describes the effect of the scramble for Africa on the work of the various Christian missions and the growth of the Christian Churches Volume IV 1914 1954 surveys the period after the First World War in which startling and momentous changes took place with upheavals in African society which have permanently affected the spread and influence of Christianity and goes up to the era of decolonisation which created an entirely new social and political background for the churches

A History of Christianity in Africa Elizabeth Isichei, 1995-02-22 This unprecedented work is the first one volume study of the history of Christianity in Africa Written by Elizabeth Isichei a leading scholar in this field A History of Christianity in Africa examines the origins and development of Christianity in Africa from the early story of Egyptian Christianity to the spectacular growth vitality and diversity of the churches in Africa today Isichei opens with the brilliance of Christianity in Africa in antiquity and shows how Christian Egypt and North Africa produced some of the most influential intellects of the time She then discusses the churches founded in the wake of early contacts with Europe from the late fifteenth century on and the unbroken Christian witness of Coptic Egypt and of Ethiopia Isichei also examines the different types of Christianity in modern Africa and shows how social factors have influenced its development and expression With the explosive growth of Christianity now taking place in Africa and the increasingly recognized significance of African Christianity this much needed book fills the void in scholarly works on that continent s Christian past also foreshadowing Christian Africa s influential future
