Arons,2009-12 Not all dogs can become the Pharaoh s dog You have to earn that position the same way my father and I did In the Pharaoh s courtyard a litter of puppies was born Known as Pharaoh hounds they were prestigiously bred and carefully chosen to grace the halls of the palace But Gaza was born the runt of the litter Protected fiercely by his mother and bullied by his brothers Gaza has had a hard time proving himself until the day he is chosen to be the pet of Princess Antiti From that moment Gaza is poised to earn the coveted position of Pharaoh s dog but a chase through the marketplace and out of the city soon has him lost in the desert with little hope of finding his way home After making friends with a mongoose joining a pack of jackals and comforting a fallen outrider Gaza learns about the way of life in the Egyptian desert To find his way home Gaza must learn who he is and test his moxy to the utmost in a battle with a crazed hyena and even his own littermates Join Barbara Jean Arons as she shares the exploits of the small but determined Gaza and learn whether he has what it takes to become The Pharaoh s Dog Barbara Jean Arons is a retired breeder and avid lover of Pharaoh Hounds She has two sons and resides in Minnesota Although she no longer breeds or shows dogs she is a dedicated advocate for breed awareness and works continuously to carry on the legacy of her parents who were breeders as well as that of the Pharaoh Hound     The Pharaoh Hound, Its Past, Present, and Future Pauline Block,Rita Laventhall Sacks,1977     Swifter Than the Arrow Michael Rice,2006-03-31 Swifter than the Arrow explores a little known aspect of life in Ancient Egypt celebrating the Egyptians as the first known civilisation to have formed the special bond with the dog that persists today as the most remarkable and enduring of human animal relationships Five thousand years ago the Egyptians selected and bred hounds for the chase and as the loved companions of both the Great Ones the ruling classes and of less exalted folk For more than twenty five centuries they kept the breed true a remarkable achievement to be counted alongside the development of stone architecture and the building of the pyramids the invention of hieroglyphs the creation of kingship and of the first nation state in the world The dogs on which the Egyptians lavished such loving care and skill were the elegant slender prick eared golden hounds familiar from a thousand tomb reliefs that they called tjesm They were given affectionate names and were the companions of kings who honoured them with rich burials to ensure that they would be together for ever in the Afterlife Numerous representations of dogs and their masters from predynastic rock art through to elaborate tomb paintings and reliefs leave us in no doubt as to the sincerity of the affection that the Egyptians felt for their dog companions The first named dog lover in history was the earliest known queen Herneith who was buried with her hound at Saqqara Dogs and other canines also played their roles in the rich pantheon of ancient Egyptian religion figuring as semi divine messengers between the worlds of the living and the dead Perhaps the most familiar such deity is the sleek black jackal headed god Anubis guardian of the Necropolis and attendant of the underworld Swifter than the Arrow also examines the evidence that hounds living today most notably modern breeds such as the so called Pharaoh Hound are directly descended from the Egyptian hound It reveals remarkable information about the ancestry of the hounds of the Mediterranean islands that unmistakably share the appearance and character of the dogs that once raced across the Egyptian deserts This unique book throws fresh light on our understanding of ancient Egypt while providing a completely fresh insight into the development of mankind s remarkable bond with the domesticated dog
