A Nurse and Mother Evelyn Prentis, 2012-01-05 Matron smiled It was the smile that one woman gives to another and not the chilly facial movement from Matrons of old Do you think you would be able to work 9 to 3 30 For a moment I couldn t think at all There seemed something not quite right in being paid for so little labour At the end of the Second World War as husbands came back to Civvy Street their wives had the luxury of staying at home with the children For a short while at least Soon Evelyn realised she had to find part time work to make ends meet and to her astonishment she was offered part time hours at her old hospital The day to day job hadn t changed much but she was now a nurse and mother Whooping cough and measles could still kill a small child and the early 50s polio epidemic left the whole country in shock But the nurses worked hard moaned incessantly about their aching feet and yet found things to laugh at just as they did from the start of their training If old soldiers never die then neither do nurses

Ice Cream, Gasmasks and God Joyce M Lovely, 2015-06-22 Joyce Lovely grew up in Liverpool during World War 2 her family narrowly surviving a blitz which severely damaged their home and killed two thousand of their fellow Liverpudlians in a single week She and her young friends dreamed of peace and safety but not as much as they dreamed about ice cream and chocolate and later handsome boyfriends As a teenager in the post war years she found herself pursued by romantic suitors Her choice of husband was ultimately guided by her early discovery of God and faith which was how she found herself a newly married woman struggling to run her first home in the wilds of the Shetland Isles trying to make ends meet on the slim pay of her minister husband and the kindness of the islanders A charming memoir of a young woman s childhood and coming of age
