Some Things Are Made To Smoke:

Paul Auster's Writing Machine Evija Trofimova, 2014-08-28 Paul Auster is one of the most acclaimed figures in American literature. Known primarily as a novelist, Auster's films and various collaborations are now gaining more recognition. Evija Trofimova offers a radically different approach to the author's wider body of work, unpacking the fascinating web of relationships between his texts and presenting Auster's canon as a rhizomatic, factio-fictional network produced by a set of writing tools. Exploring Auster's literal and figurative use of these tools—the typewriter, the cigarette, the doppelgänger figure, the city—Evija Trofimova discovers Auster's writing machine, a device that works both as a means to write and as a construct that manifests the emblematic writer figure. This is a book about assembling texts and textual networks, the writing machines that produce them, and the ways such machines invest them with meaning. Embarking on a scholarly quest that takes her from between the lines of Auster's work to between the streets of his beloved New York and finally to the man himself, Paul Auster's Writing Machine becomes not just a critical investigation but a critical collaboration, raising important questions about the ultimate meaning of Auster's work and about the relationship between texts, their authors, their readers, and their critics.

A Critical Commentary on Such Books of the Apocrypha, as are Appointed to be Read in Churches ... Richard Arnald, 1753 The Holy Book Of El Shaddai Efren Gamboa, 2017-06-30 The Hebrew name of God in the holy writings is El Shaddai. El means God, Creator, and Shaddai means Almighty. El Shaddai is the name of God. Although we read other names given to God in the Old Testament, none of those names are the true name of God. Names such as Lord, Yahweh, and Jehovah were never spoken or pronounced in Israel in the entire Old Testament as their god. Before the Kingdom of Judah fell, El Shaddai warns the Judeans that their false prophets have changed his name with Baal, which is the same name as Lord. And it shall be at that day, says El Shaddai, that you shall call Me Ishi, my beloved, and shall call Me no more Baali, my lord. For I will take away the names of the Baalim, lords' gods, out of their mouth, and they shall no more be mentioned by their name.
