You'll Never Know Rev. Russell Waldmann, 2025-10-29 The Creator God touched Adam by breathing into him the breath of life The optimistic God touched Noah to remain righteous and help the world to be renewed The providing God touched Abraham to live in wondrous faithfulness and see Isaac his son spared and a nation come to be The deliverer God touched Moses to rise above his perceived limitations and lead God s people to freedom The touch of God was upon Gideon who defeated an army with but a remnant Shadrach Meshach and Abednego whose faith and allegiance saved them from fire an un named woman who trusted that healing could come from but touching Jesus cloak apostles who would go into the world with the message of saving grace that changes hearts and souls In countless Bible stories throughout human history with people whose names we know Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Albert Schweitzer and Martin Luther King Jr and those whose names are lost the nurse and the soldier and the teacher the touch of God upon those lives shone brightly and wonderfully changed those lives And their touch upon others conveyed God s touch as did others touch upon them You ll Never Know is a sharing of stories and examples of God s touch being real in my life as a United Methodist pastor God touched me to touch others with the presence and grandeur of the Lord in ways that still amaze and stir and humble me God touched others in my ministerial life to touch my family and me with support and encouragement Deep and rich blessings resulted Relationships were created and enriched beyond imagine We might never know the full impact of living in celebration of these sacred touches But others will as we seek union with this fullness of God It makes all the difference
