Somerset Historical Center:

Somerset Historical Center, Somerset County, Pa Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, 1986
Proceedings of the Somersetshire Archaeological and Natural History Society Somersetshire Archaeological and Natural History Society, 1889 Somerset Historical Center Loret Treese, 2004 A guide to western Pennsylvania's rural heritage museum in Somerset that recalls the fervent spirit that settled the Pennsylvania frontier. The site features historic and reproduction buildings and a museum that illustrate the history of agriculture and the evolving technology that continues to advance farming in this region. Pennsylvania Trail of History Guides Each handbook in this continuing series focuses on one of the historic sites or museums administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission with a concise history of the subject, detailed tour of the grounds and full color photographs From Sugar Camps to Star Barns Sally Ann McMurry, 2001 Rural Pennsylvania's landscapes are evocative, richly textured testimonies to the lives and skills of generations of builders, architects, as well as local builders and craft workers. Farmhouses and barns, silos and fences, even field patterns attest to how residents over the years have had a sense of place that was not only functional but also comfortable and aesthetically appropriate for the time. From Sugar Camps to Star Barns tells the story of one such place, a landscape that evolved in southwestern Pennsylvania's Somerset County. Sally McMurry traces the rural life and landscape of Somerset County as it evolved from the earliest settlement days. Eighteenth century residents were a forest people living on sparsely built farmsteads and making free use of the heavily forested landscape. The makeshift sugar camp typified their hardscrabble lives. In the nineteenth century the people of this area turned to farming. Prompted by the market revolution that had come to Somerset County they pursued a highly varied agriculture combining a subsistence base with robust production of commodities shipped to distant cities. Their landscape reflected this combination of the local and the cosmopolitan, a combination that reached its full expression in the distinctive two story banked farmhouse with double decker porch flanked by a substantial Pennsylvania barn. The twentieth century brought a more industrialized agriculture to Somerset County. But the shift to profit and loss farming also meant the accentuation of landscape elements specific to market products. The magnificent star barns of this era overshadowed the houses and ancillary structures such as peep houses and silos. They spoke to the pressures of efficiency and mass production. The subsequent rise of coal mining helped to stimulate this trend both by supplying local markets and by creating an incentive for farmers to visually distinguish their landscapes from those of the coal patch towns. Illustrated with over 100 photographs, maps, drawings and diagrams, From Sugar Camps to Star Barns demonstrates how much we can learn about the economy and culture of a particular place simply by being attentive to the built landscape Genealogist's Address Book, 6th Edition Elizabeth Petty Bentley, 2009-02 This book is the answer to the perennial question: What's out there in the world of genealogy?
