

The background of the image is a deep space scene. It features a large, bright, circular light source in the center, which appears to be a star or a distant galaxy, emitting a strong orange-yellow glow. Several bright, elongated streaks of light, resembling comets or distant galaxies, are visible, particularly on the right side of the image. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues and purples, with the bright light source providing a strong contrast.

There's Something Happening Here David Cunningham, 2004-03-10 Annotation Drawing upon thousands of pages of primary source documents Cunningham examines COINTELPRO's surveillance of both right and left wing social movements in the 1960s 1980s Stopping Bad Things Happening to Good Schools - and Good School Leaders Mike Waters, 2018-02-02 This unique book has been written to save schools and their leaders from going belly up While no book can anticipate every possible horror situation Mike Waters book provides anyone who wants their school to steer clear of shocking events the guidance to do just that But since such things can happen anyway it is also about preparing and responding to them if they do occur Think a school harming won't happen to you or your school They are happening more and more and often to the best schools and school leaders Think your crisis management procedures will see you through Don't bank on it Many of the events that rock schools don't start off as obvious crises They may start off as something seemingly minor and containable a routine parental complaint perhaps or a stupid action by a member Then things spiral out of control That's the world that many school leaders find themselves in today And if you want painful first hand evidence for this you have only to read the school leaders own accounts of their harrowing experiences provided in the book Because Dr Waters book draws directly on his experiences of working with schools rocked by crises they never saw coming it is filled with practical wisdom But it is also blessedly short It's a book for busy people who want to save themselves stress and turmoil If that's you then read it before it's too late The Writings of Bret Harte Bret Harte, 1896 The Sermon Bible: Matthew xxii to Mark xvi, 1891

Webster, 1892 Straight to the Point Julie Leibrich, 1993 Based on interviews with randomly selected former offenders

this book takes a fresh look at the course and nature of crime It cuts across theorising trying to understand what people actually experience why they do what they do and to get a picture of successful change As the Justice Department's Centennial Fellow Dr Leibrich tracked down fifty offenders who had been sentenced to supervision in 1987 and not reoffended three years later She asked them why not The people who participated in the interviews did so because they wanted to and their stories make this a moving piece of research The author soon found that going straight was curved that the people she interviewed did not fall into such neat categories as straight and crooked Her methodology which she describes in detail in the appendices needed to grapple with the many subtleties of her material and drew on different kinds of research strategies utilising their strengths In an exciting account of her approach to problem solving on the basis of trial and error and intuition the reader gains insight into the personal experience of the research process the pitfalls and highlights the frustration and anxiety of data collection Will I find Trinity Is the guy I m going to meet really okay Do I include people who have reoffended Does my write up reflect people s real experience The result this book is tight and rigorous in its analysis but does justice to the richness and warmth of the data valuing the words and actions of the people who participated in the study
