Something In Common And Other Stories By Langston Hughes:

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21

Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States. Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories. The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald, Hemingway, Richard Ford, Raymond Carver, Eudora Welty, Andre Debus, Zora Neal Hurston, Anne Beattie, Bharati Mukherjee, J.D. Salinger, and Jamaica Kincaid, as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene. Black American Fiction Carol Fairbanks, Eugene A.

Engeldinger, 1978. A guide to Black American authors from Dolores Abramson to Al Young contains listings of their novels and short fiction as well as noting book reviews, biographical studies, and critical works on their writings. Short Story Index:

Most Popular African American Authors Bernard A. Drew, 2006-11-30. Here's a one-stop resource containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with complete lists of their works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide stresses African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers and Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley and Omar Tyree, with a few classic literary giants also included. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Where can you find information about popular contemporary African American authors? Web sites can be difficult to locate and unreliable, particularly for some of the newer authors, and their contents are inconsistent and often inaccurate. Although there are a number of reference works on African American writers, the emphasis tends to be on historical and literary authors. Here's a single volume containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with lists of their works. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide covers African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers, Octavia Butler, and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley, Omar Tyree, and Zane. A few classic literary giants who are popular with today's readers are also included, e.g., Maya Angelou, Toni Morrison, and Richard Wright. Readers who want to know more about their favorite African American authors or find other books written by those authors, students researching AA authors for reports and papers, and educators seeking background information for classes in African American literature will find this guide invaluable. High school and up.
