Something In My Eye:

Something in My Eye Michael Jeffrey Lee, 2012-01-31 An intriguing and highly original debut short story collection winner of the Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction Booklist Michael Jeffrey Lee's stories are bizarre and smart and stilted like dystopic fables told by a redneck Samuel Beckett Outcasts hunker under bridges or hole up in bars waiting for the hurricane to hit Lee's forests are full of menace too unseen crowds gather at the tree line and bands of petty crooks and marauders bluster their way into suicidal games of one upmanship In Something In My Eye violence and idleness are always in tension ratcheting up and down with an eerie and effortless force Diction leaps between registers with the same vertiginous swoops moving from courtly formality to a slang that is the characters own It's a masterful performance and Lee's inventiveness accomplishes that very rare feat hyper stylized structure and language that offer both clarity and turbulence never allowing technique to obscure what's most important a direct address that makes visible those truths we'd rather not see Lee's stories are intriguing and highly original with a bent toward the weird both in character and worldview He is a master of voice portraying the lives of men who are lost lonely and disturbed Booklist Lee is very successful in creating a dream like emotionally disconnected state throughout with intentionally stilted dialogue and plots that tend to revolve around forms of symbolic gestures physical violence or sexual deviance Publishers Weekly

An Escape Teresa L. Jones, 2009-06-23 My best friend Josy had asked me to write a story about a secret she had been keeping for years I have changed some names to protect the innocent and the guilty from being held liable Josy and her family went on a festive Hawaiian cruise for Thanksgiving They were surprised to hear that one of the most famous celebrities in Hollywood was going to be promoting his newest movie by performing a show The smiles of a family vacation were shattered when Josy received a viscous injury while lounging at the pool The ship's security needed to find the answers for Josy her family and the passengers on the ship While recuperating in her state room Josy saw what looked to be a baby being thrown into the ocean Josy's mothering instinct made her jump into the ocean to save the child The Hollywood celebrity was walking though the passageway near Josy's door and heard her cries for help and was soon to participate in the role and adventure of a lifetime

The Corner of Your Eye Kate Lyons, 2006-05-01 Six months ago twelve year old Flo ran away from home and then just disappeared Her mother Lucy having retreated to a country town to find a new life now hears a whisper that sets her again on the long cold trail She's never believed that Flo is dead and has her suspicions about who might be responsible for her disappearance Lucy returns to Sydney with only her wits her anger and her fierce determination to find the truth about her own lies

I'll Close My Eyes (but I Won't be Asleep) Elisa Adler, 2012 Delusion dementia or discourse A daughter insists on the latter and with the threads of her mother's narratives weaves for them a raft of words These conversations unlike anything I'd shared with her before shocked me I was glad they happened only when we were alone together I d never even thought these things I heard us say didn t know where they came from But since they seemed to make sense to her I kept inviting her to speak She d say something I d listen say something back we were together in words As if what we said to each other arose not from our own learning or experience but some underlying chord that included our voices but was bigger spoke through them as if the sound of the ocean were encoded in the sounds of the rain I ll Close My Eyes But I Won t Be Asleep sounds an intimate heartbreaking and sometimes humorous end of life chord in a mother and daughter relationship A compelling memoir I ll Close My Eyes But I Won t Be Asleep is an honest account of what for most of us remains hidden and unheard It will be useful for anyone torn by conflicting desires and demands battered by memory grief and rage and struggling to give care Elisa Adler studied at the University of California Berkeley Mills College and in Bogota Colombia at Centro de Estudios Colombo Americanos She has worked as a newspaper reporter translator interpreter laborer and domestic teaches English and Spanish at colleges in California and Nevada and farms with her daughter and husband in the northern Sierra
