Sometimes Gladness Collected Poems 1954 1992:

Sometimes Gladness Bruce Dawe, 1993 Poetry themes Personal Social Political _____ Attuned to Alien Moonlight Dennis Haskell, 2002 Bruce Dawe is Australia's most popular and widely studied poet. This first full-scale critical study of his poetry to date reveals a richly complex and varied poet. Dennis Haskell argues that the widespread view of Dawe as a social satirist is limiting and that Dawe is a more imaginative and lyrical poet than he has been given credit for as the title Attuned to Alien Moonlight indicates Dawe's apparent topicality and ease of access hides deeper, more mysterious and more Romantic elements in his work. Haskell analyses well-known and some quite unknown poems in order to build up a picture of Dawe's poetry as a whole and his chapters approach Dawe from some surprising perspectives for example in relation to Asia and as a love poet. Aimed at both students of Dawe's work and the general literary reader, the book places Dawe in the context of Australian poetry and cultural values and in relation to the larger traditions of poetry in English. It includes a substantial bibliography and a comprehensive chronology.

By the Book Patrick Buckridge, Belinda McKay, 2007 By the Book is an indispensable history of the literature of Queensland from its establishment as a separate colony in the mid-nineteenth century through major economic, political and cultural transformations to the beginning of the twenty-first century. Queensland figures in the Australian imagination as a frontier, a place of wild landscapes and wilder politics but also as Australia's playground, a soft tourist paradise of warm weather and golden beaches. Based partly on real historical divergences from the rest of Australia, these contradictory images have been questioned and scrutinized.

Australian Writers, 1950-1975 Selina Samuels, 2004 Gives a picture of Australian literary production in the period from the accession of Robert Menzies through the dreary 1950s and the upsurge of the 1960s to the years of Gough Whitlam and his removal from office with Kerr's coup.

50 Years of Queensland Poetry Helen Horton, Philip Neilsen, 1998 This collection aims to give the reader a sample of the richness of Queensland poetry over the fifty years from the 1940s to the 1990s. Poets include Judith Wright, Gwen Harwood, Bruce Dawe, Kevin Hart, Oodgeroo Noonuccal, Tom Shapcott, Judith Rodriguez, David Malouf, John Blight, John Manifold, Val Vallis, Rhyl McMaster, Silvana Gardner.

The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth-century English language writers and writing from around the world, celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements, periodicals, more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2,400 authors.

Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Genre Studies Carolyn R. Miller, Amy J. Devitt, 2024-11-01 Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Genre Studies gathers major works that have contributed to the recent rhetorical reconceptualization of genre. A lively and complex field developed over the past 30 years, Rhetorical Genre Studies is central to many current research and teaching agendas. This collection, which is organized both thematically and chronologically, explores genre research across a range of disciplinary interests but with a specific focus on rhetoric and composition. With introductions by the co-editors to frame and extend each section, this volume helps readers understand and contextualize both the foundations of the field and the central themes and insights that have emerged It will be of particular interest to students and scholars working on topics related to composition rhetoric professional and technical writing and applied linguistics

The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1994 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature

Gwen Harwood Peter Kuch, Stephanie Trigg, 1994 In this first study of a female author to be published in Oxford's AW series Stephanie Trigg has produced a superbly readable and highly provocative account of the work of this central and much loved Australian poet the Tasmanian mum as she was so often dismissed who went on to writesome of this country's outstanding lyrics Aware of Harwood's increasing importance and the current wave of critical and biographical interest in her life and works Trigg positions her as a testing ground for feminist poetic criticism in Australia Thus in an interview she asks Who is the Glenn Harwood to whom I refer when I write about the poetry of a woman who in recent years has become increasingly public celebrated and accessible Noting that much writing about Harwood has been informed if not blinkered by her domestic even grandmotherly persona and modesty she asks if this is the best critical vocabulary in which to describe or interpret her poetry Trigg argues that this biographical model organized around a corpus of works signed by a known or theoretically knowable subject has tended to produce something like heroine worship Drawing on Foucault Trigg focuses on Gwen Harwood as a poetic signature written by the desires and interests of her readers rather than as the living subject She notes that such a Foucauldian project sits in some tension with a feminist insistence on women's lives

The Rhetoric and Ideology of Genre Richard M. Coe, Lorelei Lingard, Tatiana Teslenko, 2002 This book takes up issues of current concern in composition studies sociolinguistics and ESL issues concerning academic literacy critical literacy expressive versus cognitive approaches to the teaching of writing and the like It does so in a practical experiential way drawing on events in classrooms in universities in South Africa and the United States The contrast between the South African context and the American as well as their surprising parallels highlight certain questions concerning the teaching of literacy in a dramatic way so that theory and practice are brought together In contrast to writing programs that follow a textbook or a planned sequence of study the authors describe a narrative pedagogy that encourages students to find a direction and choose activities suggested by their own concerns and ongoing lives
