Sometimes I Was Furious:

Life After My Mother's Stroke Tashi Hansen du Toit, Pieter du Toit, 2022-03-30 Tashi Hansen du Toit was 15 years old when her mother Karen suffered a severe haemorrhagic stroke which left her with multiple physical and cognitive impairments. This beautifully written and poignant account tells Tashi's story from the first moments after her mother's stroke, following her and her family through the experience of her mother's hospitalisation and rehabilitation. Tashi offers a rare glimpse into the impact of her mother's stroke on her family and on her life as a teenager as she juggles the stresses and demands of family, school and friends alongside coping with her mother's brain injury. As she describes how she is learning to cope with her unresolved grief three years on, she provides hope, perspective and insight on how to work towards growth and acceptance despite the catastrophe of a parent's stroke. Presenting the rarely heard adolescent perspective on parental brain injury, Tashi's moving story also features Karen's account as she comes to terms with her experience. This authentic book offers great support to others, particularly teenagers who may be going through a similar experience. It is also a valuable reading for those working in brain injury services and the education system, and for any professional or student involved in neurorehabilitation or supporting families of parents with brain injury.

Fast Future David D. Burstein, 2013-02-12 A millennial examines how his generation is profoundly impacting politics, business, media and activism. They've been called trophy kids, entitled, narcissistic, the worst employees in history and even the dumbest generation. But argues David Burstein, the millennial generation's unique blend of civic idealism and savvy pragmatism will enable us to overcome a deeply divided nation facing economic and environmental calamities. With eighty million millennials people who are today eighteen to thirty years old coming of age and emerging as leaders, this is the largest generation in U.S. history and by 2020 its members will represent one out of every three adults. They are more ethnically and racially diverse than their elders and have begun their careers at a time when the recession has set back the job market. Yet they remain optimistic about their future and are deeply connected to one another. Drawing on extensive interviews with his millennial peers and compelling new research, Burstein illustrates how his generation is simultaneously shaping and being shaped by a fast-paced and fast-changing world. Part oral history, part social documentary, Fast Future reveals the impact and story of the millennial generation in its own words.

Empire CEO's Pursuit Of Wife Qiao QiaoMuZiBai, 2020-04-10 Three years ago a calamity had descended upon South Stream City and she had become a true god of pests. Everyone had to avoid her. Three years later in order to achieve her goal she resolutely took the initiative to express her goodwill towards the rich and powerful and unintentionally climbed up the ranks of the Bai Empire's wealthiest Master Bai. From then on no one dared to say no to Nanxi who ran amok in Qingcheng Third Master Young Mistress beat up the daughter of the richest man in Qingcheng and broke three of her ribs Call that rich guy over here I want to talk to him Lord Third said Meng Hao his voice cool The Young Lady went to business and lost a hundred million Give her another billion Afterwards the man at the apex of South Stream had returned They had agreed to make use of each other He had helped her find her fiance while she had helped him find her child s mother However Marigold Nursery Rhymes and Songs B ,
