Somewhere Beyond The Dreams:

Somewhere Over the Rainbow Gloria Chadwick, 2008 Amanda is a free spirit who somehow manages to get herself stuck in the energy vibration of a physical body. Of course she did it on purpose nothing happens by accident. She's a little embarrassed to find herself on earth again and wonders how she ended up here when she vowed she'd never reincarnate again. Her most down to earth task is to see through the misty illusions of things for herself and to remember her spiritual nature. In the course of events she gets sidetracked by what everyone says is real life. But she's not sure what's real anymore. She's been dreaming about rainbows lately and now she's beginning to wonder if her life is really a dream. She's having Lavender is trying to remember something she's forgotten about her spiritual nature so she registers for school in the universe and begins classes in Time and Space Energy and Matter and Reality Awareness. She's a little concerned about the whole idea of synchronicity and the simultaneous time space concept she's not sure if she can handle everything at once. Her destiny is to unearth the mysteries of the universe and to rediscover the Scroll of Knowledge she wrote in Egypt. But she's reluctant to remember her experiences as a philosopher and has turned off her spiritual awareness. Rainbow is Amanda's higher self and Lavender's teacher who tries to help them see the light within themselves. But Rainbow is really more than she appears to be at first or even second glance.

Making Waves Frederick Lau, Christine R. Yano, 2018-02-28 Musical sounds are some of the most mobile human elements crossing national cultural and regional boundaries at an ever increasing pace in the twentieth and twenty first centuries. Whole musical products travel easily though not necessarily intact via musicians CDs and earlier cassettes satellite broadcasting digital downloads and streaming. The introductory chapter by the volume editors develops two framing metaphors traveling musics and making waves. The wave making metaphor illuminates the ways that traveling musics traverse flows of globalization and migration initiating change and generating energy of their own. Each of the nine contributors further examines music its songs makers instruments aurality aesthetics and images as it crosses oceans continents and islands. In the process of landing in new homes music interacts with older established cultural environments sometimes in unexpected ways and with surprising results. They see these traveling musics in Hawai'i Asia and the Pacific as making waves that is not only riding flows of globalism but instigating ripples of change. What is the nature of those ripples? What constitutes some of the infrastructure for the wave itself? What are some of the effects of music landing on transported to or appropriated from distant shores? How does the Hawai'i Asia Pacific context itself shape and get shaped by these musical waves? The two poetic and evocative metaphors allow the individual contributors great leeway in charting their own course while simultaneously referring back to the influence of their mentor and colleague Ricardo D Trimillos whom they identify as the wave maker. The volume attempts to position music as at once ritual and entertainment esoteric and exoteric tradition and creativity within the cultural geographies of Hawai'i Asia and the Pacific. In doing so they situate music at the very core of global human endeavors.
