

The background of the book cover is a classical painting. It depicts a reclining figure, possibly a woman, in a landscape. She is wearing a light-colored, draped garment and sandals. A lyre is positioned near her, and there are some objects on the ground, including what looks like a small vase or bowl. The style is reminiscent of ancient Greek or Roman art.

With twelve plates Eric John Dingwall, James ALLEN (the Female Husband.), Alexis Vincent Charles BERBIGUIER, Daniel Dunglas HOME, Editha JACKSON, François de PARIS, 1947 Some Human Oddities. Studies in the Queer, the Uncanny and the Fanatical. With ... Plates [including Portraits.]. Eric John Dingwall, 1947 Psychics, Sensitives and Somnambules Rodger I. Anderson, 2006-09-28 Claimants of paranormal abilities have always attracted controversy and fascination and sometimes rigorous study by scientists Charles Bailey an Australian medium was seemingly able to materialize different objects animate and inanimate under conditions which made it difficult to conceive how they could have been normally produced Sumitra Singh a woman of Northern India who in 1984 became subject to epileptic type seizures claimed to be possessed by spirits of the dead Franck Kluski was a Polish poet banker and physical medium who specialized in both human and animal materializations This biographical dictionary contains profiles of 330 psychics worldwide from Tony Agpaoa to Elenor Zugun each accompanied by a bibliography listing the primary sources consulted The primary focus is on those claimed psychics who have figured prominently in the history of the subject though some lesser known figures are included to show how rich varied and colorful that history has been The aim throughout is to present each case as fairly and dispassionately as the facts allow with a particular eye for accuracy in details and presentation The approach is historical not apologetic or accusatory making the work ideally suited as a permanent reference Developments in the Histories of Sexualities Chris Mounsey, 2013-04-11 Developments in the Histories of Sexualities In Search of the Normal 1600 1800 explores the oppositions created by the official exclusion of banned sexual practices and the resistance to that exclusion through widespread acceptance of those outlawed practices at an interpersonal level At different times and in different places state legislation sets up or tries to set up a normal by rejecting a particular practice or group of practices Yet this normal is derogated by popular practice since the banned acts themselves are thought at the grassroots level to be normal Among the events discussed in these essays are the Woods Pirie trial the Ladies of Llangollen the popular acceptance of fops and mollies and the press reaction to the discovery that James Allen was a woman who had lived successfully as a man and Lavinia Edwards was a man who had made her living as a female prostitute. Developments in the History of Sexualities analyzes both the state language of bans and fiat about sexuality and the grassroots language which marks the acceptance of multiplicity in sexual practice. Contributors benefit from the accumulation of new evidence of attitudes towards sexual practice and they engage with a wide range of texts including Ned Ward's History of the Clubs, Tobias Smollett's Roderick Random, Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew and The Tempest, Dryden's All for Love, Anne Batten Crisall's Poetical Sketches, Isaac de Benserade's Iphis et Iante and Alessandro Verri's Le Avventure di Saffo.

The Afterlife of Enclosure Carolyn J. Lesjak, 2021-04-27 The enclosure of the commons space once available for communal use was not a singular event but an act of slow violence that transformed lands, labor and basic concepts of public life leading into the nineteenth century. The Afterlife of Enclosure examines three canonical British writers: Charles Dickens, George Eliot and Thomas Hardy as narrators of this history, the long duration and diffuse effects of which required new literary forms to capture the lived experience of enclosure and its aftermath. This study boldly reconceives the realist novel not as an outdated artifact but as witness to the material and environmental dispossession of enclosure and bearer of utopian energies. These writers reinvented a commons committed to the collective nature of the social world. Illuminating the common at the heart of the novel from common characters to commonplace events, Carolyn Lesjak reveals an experimental figuration of the lost commons once a defining feature of the British landscape and political imaginary. In the face of privatization, climate change, new enclosures and the other forms of slow violence unfolding globally today, this book looks back to a literature of historical trauma and locates within it a radical path forward.

Mr Key's Shorter Potted Brief, Brief Lives Frank Key, 2015-10-01 Wesley Samuel, British clergyman and poet, 1662-1735. On Christmas Day 1716 Wesley was haunted by an apparition of a badger with no head. It was called Jeffrey. Frank writes: It occurred to me that it would be a good idea to write a modern updated version of John Aubrey's Brief Lives. But it further occurred to me that some books are unimprovable and that in trying to follow in Aubrey's footsteps I would embarrass myself and become the butt of ridicule. The idea continued to nag at me, however, and eventually I decided the solution was to outdo Aubrey in brevity. My own Brief Lives would consist of a single unadorned fact about each of my subjects. So the reader may not learn very much about the life of X or Y or Z, but they would be armed with one little nugget which might come in handy to chuck into a lull during the conversation at the kind of swish, sophisticated cocktail party to which they no doubt get invited. Other entries include Gibson, Willie; Harmsworth, Alfred; Lord Northcliffe; Jansson, Tove; Lennon, John; Stein, Gertrude; Nixon, Richard; Milhous, Schubert; Franz, Tippet; Michael, Anderson; John, Henry; Brooke, Charles; Callaghan, James; Russell, Ken.

Skeptic's Handbook of Parapsychology Paul Kurtz, 1985-09-01 A plethora of books has been published by and for those who support belief in psychic phenomena. Many people in modern society are convinced that paranormal realities exist. Old wives' tales and legends have been used for centuries to interpret these uncommon phenomena. A scientific approach is all too rarely considered Can psychic phenomena and other inexplicable happenings be tested by methods of scientific verification A Skeptic s Handbook of Parapsychology is the first comprehensive collection of essays by many of the world s leading skeptics and parapsychologists It combines a detailed history of parapsychology and psychic research with a broad view of the current status of the field Where does parapsychology stand today Is parapsychology a science Has ESP been demonstrated Does psychic power exist What do the skeptics have to say about the work of J B Rhine S G Soal the British Society for Psychical Research and other research in parapsychology How do they view such well known psychic personalities as Eusapia Palladino the Fox sisters and Uri Geller What are the skeptical evaluations of extrasensory perception psychokinesis ghosts near death experiences life after death poltergeists psychic detectives and other paranormal claims Although a large majority of the essays have been written expressly for this volume some classical skeptical pieces are included such as the confessions of Margaret Fox Kane and Douglas Blackburn The contributors are predominantly skeptical of psychic claims but some parapsychologists have been included to defend the parapsychological point of view Among the twenty nine contributors are Ray Hyman C E M Hansel Martin Gardner James Randi James Alcock John Beloff Susan Blackmore E J Dingwall Trevor H Hall and Antony Flew
