A Comparative History of Ideas Hajime Nakamura, 1992 Hajime Nakamura argues with remarkable erudition that particular intellectual and social developments can be traced in all great cultures that each culture deals with its problems in about the same order. Discussing in their similarities and in their subtle differences ideas from India, China, Japan, and Europe, the author considers such inclusive notions as the concept of God, the controversy over universals and the nature of orthodoxy and heterodoxy. This is a lucid and rewarding book which sets a new standard for dealing with a history of thought across many cultures.

The Vietnamese Family in Change Pham Van

Bich, 2013-10-11 Like most societies, Vietnam has seen marked changes in family structures and dynamics this century. For Vietnam, however, these changes have been especially radical. After decades of French acculturation, the 1940s brought sweeping economic changes and a move away from collectivism. Perhaps because of Vietnam's long isolation from the late 1970s into the early 1990s, very little has been written on the Vietnamese family. This text provides an examination of the Vietnamese family, focusing on two fundamental relationships: husband/wife and parent/children, within their wider social and historical context. The author explores how and why marital partners are chosen, individual's domains within the family, reproduction and birth control, son preference, ancestor worship, and the role of the state. As such, the study will be of interest to scholars of Vietnamese history, sociology, and anthropology.
