Something Everyone Needs:

Everyone Needs an Editor (Some of Us More Than Others) Larry McCoy, 2015-05-10 Rude raucous and often funny in a newsroom Larry McCoy has stuck to that winning combination in this memoir covering his life from an inexperienced writer at UPI to news director at CBS Radio to a retired journalist who is as appalled as non-journalists by what many news organizations consider news these days Too old to be hired again now he pokes fun at former employers and many of their products and practices He denounces performance reviews the U S media's obsession with the British royal family broadcasters who talk down to their audience journalists who make up stories know nothing bosses and a universe where virtually everyone feels the need to tweet Never comfortable swimming with the tide McCoy says the best journalist he ever met didn't even finish high school and that newswomen may ask better questions than newsmen As a public service to workers in all professions he provides guidelines on how to write a smart snappy note to your boss and if that doesn't do the trick to your boss's boss But he has kind words for writers producers overseas stringers desk assistants technicians and yes even a few anchors autobiography of a remarkable Catholic woman sainted by many who championed the rights of the poor in America's inner cities. When Dorothy Day died in 1980 the New York Times eulogized her as a nonviolent social radical of luminous personality, founder of the Catholic Worker Movement and leader for more than fifty years in numerous battles of social justice. Here in her own words this remarkable woman tells of her early life as a young journalist in the crucible of Greenwich Village, political and literary thought in the 1920s and of her momentous conversion to Catholicism that meant the end of a Bohemian lifestyle and common law marriage. The Long Loneliness chronicles Dorothy Day's lifelong association with Peter Maurin and the genesis of the Catholic Worker Movement. Unstinting in her commitment to peace, nonviolence, racial justice and the cause of the poor and the outcast, she became an inspiration to such activists as Thomas Merton, Michael Harrington, Daniel Berrigan, Cesar Chavez and countless others. This edition of The Long Loneliness begins with an eloquent introduction by Robert Coles, the Pulitzer Prize winning author and longtime friend, admirer and biographer of Dorothy Day.
