Somos como incas Beatriz Pérez Galán,2004 Indigenous Life Projects and Extractivism Cecilie Vindal Ødegaard,Juan Javier Rivera Andía,2018-10-02 Exploring indigenous life projects in encounters with extractivism the present open access volume discusses how current turbulences actualise questions of indigeneity difference and ontological dynamics in the Andes and Amazonia While studies of extractivism in South America often focus on wider national and international politics this contribution instead provides ethnographic explorations of indigenous politics perspectives and worlds revealing loss and suffering as well as creative strategies to mediate the extralocal Seeking to avoid conceptual imperialism or the imposition of exogenous categories the chapters are grounded in the respective authors long standing field research The authors examine the reactions from resistance to accommodation consequences from anticipation to rubble and materials from fossil fuel to water diversely related to extractivism in rural and urban settings How can Amerindian strategies to preserve localised communities in extractivist contexts contribute to ways of thinking otherwise

The Andean World Linda J. Seligmann,Kathleen S. Fine-Dare,2018-11-08 This comprehensive reference offers an authoritative overview of Andean lifeways It provides valuable historical context and demonstrates the relevance of learning about the Andes in light of contemporary events and debates The volume covers the ecology and pre Columbian history of the region and addresses key themes such as cosmology aesthetics gender and household relations modes of economic production exchange and consumption postcolonial legacies identities political organization and movements and transnational interconnections With over 40 essays by expert contributors that highlight the breadth and depth of Andean worlds this is an essential resource for students and scholars alike Contemporary Indigenous Cosmologies and Pragmatics Françoise Dussart,Sylvie Poirier,2022-03-07 In this timely collection the authors examine Indigenous peoples negotiations with different cosmologies in a globalized world Dussart and Poirier outline a sophisticated theory of change that accounts for the complexity of Indigenous peoples engagement with Christianity and other cosmologies their own colonial experiences as well as their ongoing relationships to place and kin The contributors offer fine grained ethnographic studies that highlight the complex and pragmatic ways in which Indigenous peoples enact their cosmologies and articulate their identity as forms of affirmation This collection is a major contribution to the anthropology of religion religious studies and Indigenous studies worldwide Contributors Anne Marie Colpron Robert R Cr peau Fran oise Dussart Ingrid Hall Laurent J r me Fr d ric Laugrand C James MacKenzie Caroline Nepton Hotte Ksenia Pimenova Sylvie Poirier Kathryn Rountree Antonella Tassinari Petronella Vaarzon Morel Cultural Tourism in Latin America Michiel Baud,Annelou Ypeij,2009-06-02 Cultural tourism has become an important source of revenue for Latin American countries especially in the Andes and Meso America Tourists go there looking for authentic cultures and artefacts and interact directly with indigenous people Cultural tourism therefore takes place in close engagement with local societies This book analyse the effects of cultural tourism and the processes of change it provokes in local societies It analyses the intricacies of informal markets the consequences of enforcing tourist policies the varied encounters of foreign tourists with local populations and the images and identities that result from the development of tourism The contributors convincingly show that the tourist experience and the reactions to tourist activities can only be understood if analysed from within local contexts Contributors Michiel Baud Annelou Ypeij Lisa Breglia Quetzil E Casta eda Ben Feinberg Carla Guerr n Montero Walter E Little Keely B Maxwell Lynn A Meisch Zoila S Mendoza Alan Middleton Beatrice Simon Griet Steel Gabriela Vargas Cetina Tourism in Latin America especially the sort of cultural tourism that plays to desires for authentic experiences has become a key foreigner currency earner for many countries This important volume examines the impact of tourism across the region providing a rich survey of the range of experiences and teasing out the theoretical implications From the almost surreal Mi Pueblito theme park in Panama to mushroom hunting tourists in Oaxaca to the eco trail leading to Machu Pichu these chapters present compelling cases that speak to identity formation nationalism and economic impacts As the contributors show benefits are differentially accrued to various actors and often not to the communities that tourists come to see Yet the contributors also make it clear that in struggles over ownership authenticity and political representation local communities actively shape the contours and meanings of tourism at times successfully leveraging cultural capital into economic gains Edward F Fischer Director Center for Latin American Studies Vanderbilt University

Of Hoarding and Housekeeping Sasha Newell, 2023-10-13 Hoarding has largely been approached from a psychological and universal perspective and decluttering from an aesthetic and ecological one while little work has been done to think about the cultural and global economic aspects of these phenomena Of Hoarding and Housekeeping provides an anthropological global and comparative angle to the understanding of hoarding and decluttering using cases from a variety of countries including US Japan India Cameroon and Argentina Focusing on the house with careful attention to material flows in and out this book examines practices of accumulation storage decluttering and waste as practices of kinship and the objects themselves as material kin

Vicos and Beyond Tom Greaves, Ralph Bolton, Florencia Zapata, 2010-10-16 In 1952 Professor Allan Holmberg arranged for Cornell University to lease the Hacienda Vicos an agricultural estate in the central Peruvian highlands on which some 1800 Quechua speaking highland peasants resided Between 1952 and 1957 Holmberg with colleagues and students initiated a set of social economic and agrarian changes and nurtured mechanisms for community based management of the estate by the resident peasants By the end of a second lease in 1962 sufficient political pressure had been brought to bear on a reluctant national government to force the sale of Vicos to its people Holmberg s twin goals for the Vicos Project were to bring about community possession of their land base and to study the process as it unfolded advancing anthropological understanding of cultural change To describe the process of doing both he invented the term participant intervention Despite the large corpus of existing Vicos publications this book contains much information that here reaches print for the first time The chapter authors do not entirely agree on various key points regarding the nature of the Vicos Project the intentions of project personnel and community actors and what interpretive framework is most valid in part these disagreements reflect the relevance and importance of the Vicos Project to contemporary applied anthropologists and the contrasting ways in which any historical event can be explained Some chapters contrast Vicos with other projects in the southern Andean highlands others examine new developments at Vicos itself The conclusion suggests how those changes should be understood within Andean anthropology and within anthropology more generally
