Leon Harris, 2017-09-26 In The Holy Spirit as Communion Leon Harris examines the pneumatologies of Colin Gunton and Frank Macchia For both theologians the doctrine of the Holy Spirit is foundational to understanding their doctrine of God Christology and ecclesiology Drawing on the theme of communion The Holy Spirit as Communion expresses the concept that the Holy Spirit is the person who perfects the divine nature and personhood of the Father and Son It is the Holy Spirit who perfects the eternal communion within the divine Trinity which is the source of the divine action that also perfects the communion in creation as an expression of the Father's will through Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit as Communion explores the essentiality of the Holy Spirit through a unique approach to Spirit Christology Gunton is represented by a radicalized version of Chalcedon Christology and Macchia formulates his account through the overarching metaphor of Spirit baptism Therefore the doctrine of God Christology ecclesiology and eschatology cannot be construed without a proper account of pneumatology that takes into consideration the eschatological perfecting work of the third person of the Trinity who perfects creation's koinonia as a gift from the Father through the grace of Jesus Christ

The Spirit of Augustine's Early Theology Mr Chad Tyler Gerber, 2013-06-28 St Augustine's pneumatology remains one of his most distinctive decisive and ultimately divisive contributions to the story of Christian thought How did his understanding of the Spirit develop Why does he identify the Spirit with divine love and cosmic order And from what personal and literary sources did he receive inspiration This examination of Augustine's pneumatology the first book length study of this important topic available seeks answers in Augustine's earliest extant writings penned during the years surrounding his famed return to the Catholic Church and the height of his efforts to synthesize Catholic theology and the Platonic philosophy of his day which had postulated a divine trinity of its own Careful analysis of these initial texts casts fresh light upon Augustine's more mature and well known theology of the Holy Spirit while also illuminating on going discussions about his early thought such as the nature and extent of his Platonic sympathies and the possibility that the recent convert remained committed to the divinity of the human soul

God Without Measure: Working Papers in Christian Theology John Webster, 2015-11-19 In this two volume collection of essays which forms a companion to The Domain of the Word John Webster brings together studies of a range of topics in dogmatic and moral theology This first volume God and the Works of God treats the themes of God's inner being and God's outer acts After an overall account of the relation between God in himself and the economy of God's external works there are studies of the divine aseity and of the theology of the eternal Son These are followed by a set of essays on creation out of nothing the relation between God and God's creatures the nature of providence the relation of soteriology and the doctrine of God and the place of teaching about justification in Christian theology Each of the essays explores the relation of theology proper to economy and together they pose an understanding of Christian doctrine in which all theological teaching flows from the doctrine of the immanent Trinity

The Third Person of the Trinity Zondervan, 2020-12-01 A Fresh Look at the Holy Spirit Recent decades have recognized pneumatology the theology of the Holy Spirit as a critical component in Christian thought worthy of increased attention While scholarly discussion about the Spirit is both creative and lively it does sometimes occur in outlying areas of doctrine and practice rather than within its context of the doctrine of God The Third Person of the Trinity represents the proceedings of the 2020 Los Angeles Theology Conference which examined pneumatology as a core component of the doctrine of the Trinity offering constructive proposals for understanding the doctrine of the Holy Spirit with theological and historical depth ecumenical scope and analytic clarity The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Understanding the Holy Spirit s presence in creation The mystery of the Trinity and the procession of the Spirit An exploration of a Black American pneumatology of freedom Exploring pneumatology alongside sorrow and suffering Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future
