Not Your Ordinary Vietnam War Stories Jim Pepper, 2013-03-29 After graduating from the University of Missouri in 1969 I was commissioned as an officer in the Marines I served an interesting tour of duty in Southeast Asia in 1972 during which time I was in and out of six different countries including Vietnam. A greenhorn lieutenant when I landed I was eventually promoted to captain. Because of my God-given take charge personality and a few very junior officer notable accomplishments I found myself frequently being handpicked for special assignments. I saw action with seven different units some good some bad some ugly. I saw men die I saw capable men withered by fatigue brave men crippled by fear. Since I served more than forty years ago now I have had the pleasure and privilege of meeting and getting to know hundreds of fellow Vietnam Vets short term acquaintances professional colleagues neighbors close friends family members. Although our individual Vietnam stories are unique and intensely personal I have come to realize that a common thread runs through most of them. For more than twenty five years I have been asked to formally speak to sundry civic organizations history classes and social gatherings. As a result of fielding thousands of audience questions and listening to their spontaneous reactions to my talks I have learned what people are interesting in hearing. I have seen their reactions to my version of America's Vietnam experience. I know what's interesting and what's not what's important to those who weren't there. Ordinary people who merely wonder what it was like. I have enjoyed two successful careers and am currently embarked upon my third. I have fired most of life's best bullets emptied most of my chosen weapons. Most precious magazines drained. My fullest canteens exhausted. Most of my allotted time on this fair planet we call earth I want to share a few of the stories of men I served with men I came to know later in life men I loved as brothers in arms surviving in harm's way or men who were simply Crazy Vietnam Vets like me with a special story to tell. Men JUST like me only different. Ours are interesting up and down tales of wonder and weird of good times and bad. I am happily married to a seasoned school nurse am the father of three college educated sons and have two fine grandsons. I live in Blanco Texas about forty miles due west of Austin. I have always viewed life's glass as half full. Hope you enjoy our Not Ordinary war stories.

Crossroads Stephen L. Bryant, 2010-02 Paddy O'Doul a popular and upstanding Irish pub owner was brutally murdered after closing one night. No one he knew could have wanted him dead. Even more mysterious were the large sums of money that he left in his will. Reeling from the baffling events his family attempts to uncover the truth. Annie O'Doul's daughter and a brilliant lawyer Macklin a unique private investigator with a dangerous past and Rusty a skillful undercover cop are brought together by these troubling events Together they begin to uncover the truth behind Paddy s untimely death What follows is a whirlwind of chaos as an unknown evil reveals sweeping plans for their community With no limits to power corruption or wealth The mysterious entity known only as B A crushes all opposition to its dark undertakings When the plot behind the recent murders is revealed to be more wicked than imaginable and when the lust for death goes far deeper than a single Irish pub owner can anyone possibly stand against the evil that is descending upon them Only God knows and he does in fact have a plan A Narrative of Italian Travels in Persia, in the Fifteenth and Sixteen Centuries Charles Grey,1873
