A BROKEN FAMILY

Two Syrian immigrants meet fate with unwitting spies in a different culture without their parents knowing the exact whereabouts of their town of Damascus where they must adjust to a new culture while making new friends and enemies.

At the same time, their father, King Calamari, who has been conspiring with the CIA to share political information is transferred to Abuja, Nigeria to chase a national security software deal with the former President of Nigeria, Richard Clinton. Great danger awaits.

COMBINED FROM REVEREND

The book has received glowing reviews from publishing professionals as well as first readers. It has been described as "captivating" and "riveting". Some of the comments received include "a thrilling story with convincing characters" and "Each new turn of events and continuously intriguing chapters as the protagonist seeks to escape those intent on destroying him and his two sons", and from a reader "Great story I couldn't put it down. I loved this!!" L. Russell Records

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

L. Russell Records has lived a life of adventure which he has translated into this spy thriller, "Spies Like Us". He is an successful entrepreneur, creating new systems for the oil, gas and then for the global energy industry. During his 50-year professional career, his publications include topics as broad as wind energy, oil drilling, combat drone operations, US robot launching, business process improvement, knowledge management, and artificial intelligence. He has traveled and worked all over the world and consulted for major international corporations. He was once a visiting professor in a Chinese university. During this time in the early 1980s, he assisted the CIA in gaining intelligence about Chinese computer capabilities when little was known about their abilities and ambitions. This experience is the driving force behind this book. He is an aviator, a history enthusiast, and holds a Master's Certificate for ship operations from the US Coast Guard. He is an award-winning offshore sailing mariner. He has taken his experiences with world culture and is an award-winning chef. He is a graduate of the US Air Force Academy and has also earned a Master's Degree from MIT in Aeronautics and Astronautics. He brings all of these experiences to bear in this, his debut novel.
