Sunday At The Pool In Kigali:

A Sunday at the Pool in Kigali Gil Courtemanche, 2007-12-18 A Sunday at the Pool in Kigali is a moving passionate love story set amid the turmoil and terror of Rwanda's genocide. All manner of Kigali residents pass their time by the pool of the Mille Collines hotel: aid workers, Rwandan bourgeoisie expatriates, UN peacekeepers, prostitutes. Keeping a watchful eye is Bernard Valcourt, a jaded foreign journalist, but his closest attention is devoted to Gentille, a hotel waitress with the slender elegant build of a Tutsi. As they slip into an intense improbable affair, the delicately balanced world around them, already devastated by AIDS, erupts in a Hutu-led genocide against the Tutsi people. Valcourt's efforts to spirit Gentille to safety end in their separation. It will be months before he learns of his lover's shocking fate. The Postcolonial African Genocide Novel Chigbo Arthur Anyaduba, 2021-10-01 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and through Knowledge Unlatched. In The Postcolonial African Genocide Novel, Chigbo Anyaduba examines fictional responses to mass atrocities occurring in postcolonial Africa. Through a comparative reading of novels responding to the genocides of the Igbo in Nigeria (1966-1970) and the Tutsi in Rwanda (1990-1994), the book underscores the ways that literary encounters with genocides in Africa's postcolonies have attempted to reimagine the conditions giving rise to exterminatory forms of mass violence. The book concretizes and troubles one of the apparent truisms of genocide studies, especially in the context of imaginative literature: that the reality of genocide more often than not resists meaningfulness. Particularly given the centrality of this truism to artistic responses to the Holocaust and to genocides more generally, Anyaduba tracks the astonishing range of meanings drawn by writers at a series of temporal, spatial, historical, cultural, and other removes from the realities of genocide in Africa's postcolonies: a set of meanings that are often highly specific and irreducible to maxims or foundational cases. The book shows that in the artistic projects to construct meanings against genocide's nihilism, writers of African genocides deploy tropes that while significantly oriented to African concerns are equally shaped by the representational conventions and practices associated with the legacies of the Holocaust. Un dimanche à la piscine à Kigali Gil Courtemanche, 2000 Analyse Roman historique Roman de société Health Knowledge and Belief Systems in Africa Toyin Falola, Matthew M. Heaton, 2008 Health care in sub-Saharan Africa is and will continue to be an issue of utmost importance in the twenty-first century. As the HIV/AIDS pandemic ravages the continent, the stakes heighten not only to provide effective and efficient health care to African communities but also to disseminate knowledge about health-seeking behavior and to instill belief among people in the possibility of leading a healthy existence. Health Knowledge and Belief Systems in Africa raises questions and offers analysis on many issues related to how health and illness are understood by communities in Africa as well as how health knowledge and beliefs are disseminated and utilized to provide health services to African populations. The chapters in this book derive from many different disciplinary approaches and cover regions across sub-Saharan Africa, thus offering a holistic glimpse at the knowledge and belief systems functioning in Africa and the ways that these systems contribute to health care access and delivery in the world's most endangered continent. This edited book of thirty-three chapters is an impressive update of scholarship on health concerns in Africa as the new century begins. Divided into five parts, it presents multidisciplinary analyses from the perspectives of individuals, professionals, non-profit organizations, communities, and governments. This is a volume that has much to offer anyone interested in Africa's evolving health care system.

 De door het leven teleurgestelde Canadese journalist Bernard Valcourt komt naar Rwanda voor de oprichting van een lokale televisiezender. Als dat plan vastloopt, besluit hij om een film te gaan maken over aids. Daarnaast schrijft hij een boek aan het zwembad van zijn hotel in Kigali, waar de blanke en zwarte elite onder het genot van Franse kaas de politieke situatie doornemen. Valcourt, die de liefde heeft afgezworen na pijnlijke ervaringen met de drie vrouwen van zijn leven, wordt toch opnieuw verliefd. Gentile, de serveerster van het hotel, is een prachtige vrouw met een gemengde Hutu-Tutsi achtergrond. Als het geweld losbarst en de door de Hutu-regering aangewakkerde moordpartijen op Tutsi's een aanvang nemen, loopt zij groot gevaar. Valcourt raakt veel dieper betrokken bij de onthutsende gebeurtenissen dan hij ooit had kunnen vermoeden. Hij stuit op het opportunisme en de onverschilligheid van ontwikkelingswerkers, diplomaten, en nonnen. Tegelijkertijd leert hij in deze onmenselijke omstandigheden waar de dood een dagelijkse verschijning is, wat liefde en leven is. Gil Courtemanche doet in Een zondag aan het zwembad in Kigali het onmogelijke: een prachtig boek schrijven over liefde en menselijkheid in tijden van de Rwandese genocide.     The Camp Colman Hogan, Marta Marin-Dòmine, 2007
 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind, scope, and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration, in texture, iconography, and political import. Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention, migration, deportation, and refugee camps. And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global, it is broad.

Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of oidentity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony oeto bear witness is to place oneself in one TM s own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living Hope for a Better World Monique Mitchell,2012-09 The book is basically my memoir however there are some fictitious characters but all is based on real events Flashback to my childhood in Madagascar country with a fascinating history and a unique population with ethnic characteristics in my own family Recollecting past personal tragedies in childhood and situating myself in the present where loving people my family and church friends are surrounding me motivating me to be a good person and see life in a happy perspective In particular feeling as a great privilege to be part of the melting pot in the USA Recollection of the life at the Faculty of Medecine Angers France and the following years in Paris graduating in social studies Identifying the influence of the French culture as a pivotal factor in my life and grateful to Bon Papa grandfather who by becoming a naturalized French citizen enabled his descendants to benefit from their French education while identifying their difference and or alienation could also choose individually how to find a balance between a dual culture they were are exposed to their own native and the acquired one An interesting trip to the Champagne region through the wine road and to the east of France Alsace rich in war WWI memories And there also exhilarating history about the Statute of Liberty designed and constructed before being brought to the USA by the French architect Fr d ric August Bartholdi Marriage to an American business man and birth of son in 1965 but early on had to raise her child as a single mother due unsurmountable challenges in the marriage Worked for 20years for the UN in 9 countries in Africa and Asia all called hardship posts including those for keep peacing missions located in politically challenged and or war torn countries For each country there is a description besides my administrative work of history culture population etc Farewell trip to Madagascar visiting the tomb of my grand parents with great sadness fond memories and gratefulness for having raised me as a Christian child with the moral values I still carry with me at this day Joining my American family on a permanent basis to be with my beloved son Birth of granddaughter Jade who is now a teenager and praying for all members of my family to be blessed by God in the country where I am now conveying my message for love and tolerance in my book Hope For a Better Work The Guardian Index ,2003
