Catalog of the Opera Collections in the Music Libraries--University of California, Berkeley, University of California, Los Angeles University of California, Berkeley, University of California, Los Angeles, 1983    New York Magazine, 1975-08-25
New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea    Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1962    Carter David Schiff, 2018-07-02 Elliott Carter 1908-2012 was the foremost composer of classical music in America during the second half of the 20th century. Over the course of a career that spanned seven decades he consistently produced works that critics hailed as creatively daring intellectually demanding and emotionally complex. Distancing himself from the various schools and movements that grew and waned in popularity during the postwar era Carter cultivated a deeply personal musical style that he developed and refined up until the very end of his life. This book of the composer springs from author David Schiff's life long interest in Elliott Carter's music and his close personal connection with the composer which spanned over forty years. This critical overview of Carter's life and work explores aspects of the composer's life about which he was usually reticent and occasionally misleading such as his complicated relationships with Charles Ives Aaron Copland Nicolas Nabokov and his own parents. Schiff's study of Carter's complete oeuvre from his politically charged Depression era ballets to the deeply personal and reflective late works is based on extensive study of the composer's personal sketches and letters. Featuring an in depth look at the legacy project of Carter's final decade seven settings of American modernist poetry by E E Cummings T S Eliot Marianne Moore Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens and William Carlos Williams this newest addition to the Master Musicians Series paints with a fine brush the story of America's foremost composer of the second half of the twentieth century    Art in Cinema Frank Stauffacher, 2006

Musical Digest Pierre Van Rensselaer Key, Alfred Human, 1946    The Complete Penguin Stereo Record and Cassette Guide Edward Greenfield, Robert Layton, Ivan March, 1984 This book finds this familiar group of highly respected critics having compiled a very useful survey of classical music on compact discs and cassettes. The authors discuss the artistic merits and sound quality of each recording in evaluations that are extremely perceptive and educational. Audiophiles will be happy to know that the authors indicate whether or not the recording has been recorded digitally or remastered from an analog original. Those on a budget will appreciate the inclusion of bargain priced editions. And music lovers in general attempting to navigate the maze of CDs currently available will find this work indispensable    High Fidelity, 1963 Contains Records in review    RCA Victor Record Review, 1942-06    Fanfare, 1993    The New Records, 1986    The David
