Wallace,2015-07-08 This book simply dissects the interesting inspiring and sometimes lonely world of the teacher of early childhood As the continued advancements in education across the board hint at a brighter future for our children and our society we are troubled that some of the same practices that have prevented earlier generations of students and teachers from prospering in the classroom are still commonplace Johns and Wallace endeavor to touch the hearts of teachers administrators and parents who know deep down there is still such a long way to go and who understand that the tasks assigned to teachers are sometimes overwhelming Great classrooms have teachers who care deeply for the children entrusted to their care while great schools continually forge ahead in providing the necessary human resources tools training and support in the affective domain that teachers so desperately need in order to have meaningful fulfilling careers

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Culture and Identity from Early Childhood to Early Adulthood Ruth Wills,Marian de Souza,Jennifer Mata-McMahon,Mukhlis Abu Bakar,Cornelia Roux,2021-07-15 How do children determine which identity becomes paramount

as they grow into adolescence and early adulthood. Which identity results in patterns of behaviour as they develop? To whom or to which group do they feel a sense of belonging? How might children, adolescents and young adults negotiate the gap between their own sense of identity and the values promoted by external influences? The contributors explore the impact of globalization and pluralism on the way most children and adolescents grow into early adulthood. They look at the influences of media and technology that can be felt within the living spaces of their homes competing with the religious and cultural influences of family and community and consider the ways many children and adolescents have developed multiple and virtual identities which help them to respond to different circumstances and contexts. They discuss the ways that many children find themselves in a perpetual state of shifting identities without ever being firmly grounded in one potentially leading to tension and confusion particularly when there is conflict between one identity and another. This can result in increased anxiety and diminished self esteem. This book explores how parents, educators and social and health workers might have a raised awareness of the issues generated by plural identities and the overpowering human need to belong so that they can address associated issues and nurture a sense of wholeness in children and adolescents as they grow into early adulthood.

International Arbitration and International Commercial Law Eric E. Bergsten, 2011-01-01 Over the last half century as UNCITRAL official professor arbitrator and father of the Willem C Vis Arbitration Moot Eric Bergsten has been at the forefront of progress in international commercial arbitration. Now on the occasion of his eightieth birthday the international arbitration and sales law community has gathered to honour him with this substantial collection of new essays on the many facets of the field to which he continues to bring his intellect, integrity, inquisitive nature, eye for detail, precision and commitment to public service. Celebrating the long standing and sustained contribution Eric Bergsten has made in international commercial law, international arbitration and legal education more than fifty colleagues among them quite a few of the best known arbitrators and arbitration academics in the world present 45 pieces that individually both engaging and incisive collectively present a thorough and far reaching account of the state of the field today with contributions covering international sales law, commercial law, commercial arbitration and investment arbitration. In addition nine essays on issues in legal education mirror the great importance of the renowned Willem C Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Eric's Vienna project which has offered a life changing experience for so many young lawyers from all over the world.
