The Poetics Of Perspective:

The Poetics of Perspective James Elkins, 1994 My principal concern in this book is the way we talk about pictures Renaissance writers and artists imagined perspective quite differently than we do I maintain that Renaissance authors and artists thought there were many compatible perspectives so that their writing and painting evince a pluralist approach in strict contrast to the monolithic mathematical perspective we imagine today Theirs was more a collection of rational methods than a rationalisation of sight more a way of drawing objects than of setting them in an abstract pictorial space Most important is the gradual recession of perspective as a mute method a practical subset of geometry and the growth of perspective as a metaphor a powerful concept for ordering our perception and accounting for our subjectivity Preface

The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature Esad Durakovic, 2015-04-24 Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature including the Qur'an from within the Arabic literary tradition this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts Traditionally this literature has been viewed through a philologist's lens and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur'an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post-Qur'anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies

The Poetics of Violence in Afroeurasian

Bioarchaeology Roselyn A. Campbell, Anna J. Osterholtz, 2024-06-22 This volume explores violence in bioarchaeological case studies from various cultures geographic regions and time periods throughout the Eastern Hemisphere through the lens of Neil Whitehead's concept of poetics It emphasizes the role and power of performance and ritual in violent acts and how different types of violence are used within societies Whitehead's poetics of violence model has primarily been applied to Western Hemisphere assemblages and indigenous groups and this is the first volume dedicated to the application of this theoretical model to Europe Asia and Africa Developed from a symposium organized at the American Association of Physical Anthropologists annual meeting in 2018 this volume keeps a tight focus on the direct link between physical evidence for violence in human remains and the contextualized interpretations of how that violence may have functioned within an individual's society This type of theoretical interpretation which treats violence as a meaningful act firmly embedded within its cultural context rather than as an aberration is rarely applied to archaeological assemblages and human remains from the Eastern Hemisphere This is the first volume to offer direct physical evidence for how violence was enacted and understood within different societies in the past This volume aims to make these rigorous theoretical studies available to students and professionals in archaeology anthropology and bioarchaeology and to provide a model for other researchers to interpret evidence of violence in human remains from archaeological contexts

The Architectonics of Meaning

Walter Watson, 1993-06-15 The Architectonics of Meaning is a lucid demonstration of the purposes methods and implications of philosophical semantics that both supports and builds on Richard McKeon's and other noted pluralists' convictions that multiple philosophical approaches are viable Watson ingeniously explores ways to systematize these approaches and the result is a well structured instrument for understanding texts This book exemplifies both general and particular aspects of systematic pluralism reorienting our understanding of the realms of knowing doing and making

The Poetic

Organization A. Pitsis, 2014-10-02 The Poetic Organization explores the inherent aspects of organization that revolve around poetic processes This book is a commentary on poetic elements in organization that are critical to developmental areas of organizations yet poetics are rarely given the attention deserved

José Carlos Mariátegui's Unfinished Revolution

Melisa Moore, 2013-12-18 The years 1909-1930 the eleven year presidency of the businessman turned politician Augusto B. Leguía mark a formative period of Peruvian modernity witnessing the continuity of a process of reconstruction and the development of an intellectual and cultural tradition after a humbling defeat during the War of the Pacific 1879-1883 But these years were also fraught with conflict generated by long standing divisions and new rivalries A postwar generation of intellectuals and artists led by José Carlos Mariátegui and galvanized by left wing thinking and an avant garde aesthetic sought representation in the fields of politics and the arts to realize the modernizing potentialities opened up by a Positivist oligarchy New political and artistic conceptions raised their awareness of the fractured sense of nationhood in Peru and the need for a new project of nation formation based on a common political and cultural consciousness Crucially this gave rise to divergent political and artistic positions and practices Mariátegui's Indigenist Marxist politics and Modernist inspired poetics through his influential journal Amauta were pivotal in revitalizing conciliating and channeling those of his cohorts and challengers Comprising six full length chapters a comprehensive introduction and conclusion this monograph is ambitious in scope and depth It provides fresh readings of key writings of Mariátegui one of Latin America's most important and revolutionary political cultural and aesthetic theorists through the lens of his poetics emphasizing the value of this approach for a fuller understanding of his work's political meaning and impact It does so through detailed analysis of the poetic expressive language employed in seminal political essays aimed at forging a new Marxist position in 1920s Peru Furthermore it offers powerful and original critiques of understudied intellectuals of this time especially Apristas Futurists Socialists and Indigenists including female writers and artists such as Magda Portal, Angela Ramos and Julia Codesido whose work he championed These readings are fully contextualized in terms of detailed critical study of complex sociopolitical conditions and positions and biographical intellectual backgrounds of Mari tegui and his contemporaries This monograph underscores the fundamental importance of Mari tegui in the development of political and artistic practices and projects that shaped a national shared yet also heterogeneous political culture and cultural tradition in Peru during and after his lifetime

The Poetics of Historical Perspectivism Jill Anne Kowalik,1992 Jill Kowalik reevaluates J J Breitinger s Critische Dichtkunst 1740 with regard to a heretofore neglected aspect of aesthetics in the early eighteenth century namely how poesis and historiography could increasingly come to resemble each other in their assumptions purposes and methods of representation The central argument states that historians of this period began to utilize the concept of historical perspectivism only after its development as an interpretive tool by the aesthetic thinkers of the early Enlightenment The Critische Dichtkunst is examined in terms of three disparate traditions the modern reception of Aristotle s Poetics Horace s Ars poetica and the Quarrel between the Ancients and the Moderns the model of consciousness proposed by Leibniz that describes the mind as a ceaseless process of historical intellectual integration and the German reception of French neoclassical authors especially Dubos whose notion of historical probability was radicalized by Breitinger and later appropriated by poets and historians alike

The Poetics and the Poetry of René Char Virginia A. La Charité,1968 This study is based on a detailed analysis of the textual variants and revisions that reflect the poet s linear development from his poetic debut in 1922 to the present It shows how his poetry is mainly devoted to thinking about poetic creation while his aphorisms are reflections on nature and the role of the poet

Lamartine and the Poetics of Landscape Mary Ellen Birkett,1982

The Poetics of Translatio Studii and Conjointure Michelle A. Freeman,1979

The Poetics of Disclosure Charles Evan Sherry,1972

The Poetics of Intimacy and the Problem of Sexual Abstinence Michael J. Hartwig,2000 This bold work asks whether traditional Christian sexual morality with its emphasis on sexual abstinence outside of heterosexual marriage is harmful Appealing to sociological studies anthropological theories and contemporary theological ethics Hartwig develops a model of sexual virtue around the concept of a poetics of intimacy and applies this model to particular challenges faced by the divorced married couples gay men and lesbians single adults and people with mental and developmental disabilities He concludes that mandated long term and lifelong sexual abstinence for those outside heterosexual marriage is not only harmful but compromises many features of Christian morality
