South From Ephesus:

South from Ephesus Brian Sewell, 2012-04-19 South from Ephesus focuses on Brian Sewell's winter journey from Ephesus to Side. Weary of what he called the tyranny of western art, Brian Sewell first visited Turkey, a country that had captivated him since he was a boy in 1975. He thought that there anything he found would have no relevance to the European art that he had so compulsively stitched into the dense fabric of his art historical memory and that he could therefore enjoy the art for its own sake. But Turkey surprised him. Sewell delighted in the unexpected wealth of Greek, Roman, Byzantine and Islamic cultures there and he returned three or four times a year until 1990. With typically acerbic commentary, Sewell describes not always favourably the archaeological and historical sites he comes across, the landscapes that so clearly thrilled him, the encounters he had along the way and the fractious though wonderfully funny relationship he forms with Ayhan, his driver. South from Ephesus is an incomparable portrait of Turkey and its artistic heritage, a book that could only have been written by Sewell and which has become a quirky classic of travel literature.

Cities of the Biblical World LaMoine F. DeVries, 2006-11-29 This text is designed to introduce students of the Bible to the archaeology, geography and history of many of the important sites of the Old and New Testament worlds. Many of these sites were centers for trade, religion, defense, culture, industry and government. DeVries details the development of significant sites from villages and towns to cities based on how the site could meet the essential needs of the people. The availability of water or arable land, proximity to trade routes and easily defensible terrain were prime factors in determining a city's prominence. This study concentrates on the cities in Mesopotamia, Aram, Syria and Phoenicia, Anatolia, Egypt and Palestine during the Old Testament period and Palestine and the provinces of the Roman world during the New Testament period. Special attention is given to the geographical setting of the city, the history of its development, its relevance to the Bible, its distinguishing features and any significant archaeological discoveries made at the site.
