Southern Cone Model The Political Economy Of Regional Capitalist Development In Latin America:

The Southern Cone Model Nicola Phillips, 2004-03-18 Developing an original blend of perspectives from the fields of international and comparative political economy this book presents an innovative and in depth account of the contemporary political economy of the southern cone of Latin America Argentina Brazil Chile Paraguay and Uruguay It identifies a new and distinctive model of regional capitalist development emerging in the southern cone and a complex relationship with both the global political economy and the five distinctive national political economies in the region Ranging across the contours of labour business states and regionalist processes Phillips assesses the significance of the Southern Cone Model for the ways in which we understand contemporary capitalist development at both national and transnational levels

The Political Economy of Space in the Americas Alejandra Roncallo, 2013-07-31 This book presents a novel and cutting edge interpretation of the evolving political economy of the Americas Through a combination of qualitative research and theory it considers the reconstruction of American led hegemony in the Americas since the 1982 debt crisis and presents an examination of the new Pax Americana Drawing on the Gramscian concept of hegemony as understood by Robert Cox and Henri Lefebvre this book argues that since the 1982 debt crisis there has been a reconstruction of American led hegemony under the signature of neo liberalism and that it has taken place in the last four ten year developmental planning stages market reforms in the 1980s good governance in the 1990s poverty reduction in the new millennium and currently the disembedding of security Each evolutionary stage was constructed to secure the continuing motion of capitalist accumulation on a world scale Moving from the global to the local scale the book includes two detailed case studies on mining extraction in Bolivia to show how subaltern groups actually experienced and negotiated the transition from the old to the new Pax Americanas at the level of everyday life and what conflicts arose The book ends with a chapter on President Evo Morales and the re foundation of Bolivia as an indigenous nation The Political Economy of Space in the Americas will be of interest to students and scholars of political economy and Latin American politics

Globalizing International Political Economy Nicola Phillips, 2017-10-07 Despite its claims to global scope and relevance International Political Economy as a field of study remains entrenched in a narrow set of theoretical conceptual and empirical foundations derived from the experiences of the advanced industrialized democracies Bringing together specially commissioned chapters by leading authorities in each key area of debate Globalizing International Political Economy provides a systematic examination and critique of contemporary IPE and puts forward a new agenda for a truly global political economy

The Political Economy of Integration Jeffrey W. Cason, 2010-10-04 This book assesses South America s most ambitious attempt at economic integration Mercosur It explains the main and inherent weaknesses of the integration effort through explicit comparison with the European experience with integration Jeffrey Cason argues that the three main reasons for Mercosur s limited success are weak domestic political institutions in the member countries vulnerability in the global political economy and a serious imbalance in the economic and political weight of the member countries In addition to providing this overarching explanation for Mercosur's limitations the book tells the story of Mercosur's genesis development and frustrations This book provides both an explanatory framework for understanding Mercosur and a story It considers how Mercosur emerged why it was greeted with great enthusiasm and huge trade growth and how it hit stumbling blocks as it sought to be more than it was capable of being The book also focuses on how and why developing countries are inherently limited in any economic integration project Global Political Economy John Ravenhill, 2014 Dealing with the central themes and issues of the subject this text outlines the different theoretical approaches of the global political economy as well as engaging key contemporary debates such as worldwide trade and production Globalization, Regionalization and Business M. Schelhase, 2008-10-01 The book provides new insight into the role of organised business interests It supports the concept of political economy and demonstrates how it transcends the limitations of CPE or IPE to form a coherent whole The book maps the conflict convergence and influence of organized business interests in the context of regional integration Cultivating Socialism Rowan Lubbock, 2024-05-15 Launched in 2004 the Latin American regional institution of ALBA Alianza Bolivariana para los Pueblos de Nuestra Am rica Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America sought to overcome the historical legacies of neocolonial domination by consecrating the values of cooperation inclusive development and popular power As part of a region wide effort among states and social movements to break out of the destructive effects of capitalist agriculture the elevation of food sovereignty based on the protection of rural livelihoods land redistribution and sustainable agricultural production agroecology became a cornerstone of ALBA's development policy And yet these regional aspirations barely saw the light of day while Venezuela the beating heart of ALBA experienced the worst food crisis in its history How did this come to pass Based on extensive fieldwork in Venezuela where the majority of ALBA's food policies reside Cultivating Socialism provides the first in depth study of the ways in which peasants workers and states working through ALBA attempted to redress the inequities of commercial agriculture and the limits and contradictions encountered on the road to a regional food sovereignty regime With his analysis of the politics of food sovereignty within ALBA Rowan Lubbock offers important lessons about how we might think about emancipatory politics today and in the future SouthSouth Trade and Finance in the Twenty-First Century Omar Dahi, Firat Demir, 2016-10-10 This book is a contribution to the international trade and economic development literature and is based on a decade of joint research and collaboration on South South economic relations Given the increasing focus on the economic power of some developing countries for example the 2013 Human Development Report's Rise of the South it is particularly appropriate and timely NP The book's findings are based on rigorous empirical examination of South South trade and finance and it provides an even handed assessment from the perspective of long term development goals rather than mainstream welfare approaches or ideological theoretical worldview NP This work directly engages with the new developmentalism literature that has challenged the neoliberal orthodoxy and its policy approach which focuses on liberalization privatization and deregulation It also engages with literature by examining whether the increase in South South trade facilitates or inhibits the possibilities for developmentalist economic policy in developing countries The book shows concrete and positive results from South South trade particularly related to industrial development and also documents how South South trade is dominated by large developing countries and that South South trade liberalization may be counterproductive

Political Economy and the Changing Global Order Richard Stubbs, Geoffrey R. D. Underhill, 2006 Covering the basics necessary for a course in international political economy IPE this text comes from a non American critical perspective and the contributors are drawn from prominent scholars of IPE around the world

South America, Central America and the Caribbean 2007 Europa Publications, 2006-09-14 An incomparable single source of reference on a huge and important region

The Global Political Economy of Intellectual Property Rights Christopher May, 2010 The first edition established itself as one of the leading books to situate the issue of intellectual property within the discipline of International Political Economy IPE Since its publication intellectual property has continued to rise up the global agenda reflecting expanding interest in the area among policy makers and advocacy groups linked to the increasingly fraught politics of the global governance of IPRs Significantly revised and updated to take account of developments within the World Trade Organization and the World Intellectual Property Organization this edition incorporates the author's recent research on IPRs It retains the theoretical and analytical elements of the first edition whilst offering students and researchers a detailed analysis of how intellectual property is politically constructed and how it is linked to the economics of knowledge and information in the contemporary global political economy Rapidly developing issues addressed in the work include arguments around the implementation of the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of IPRs TRIPs the WIPO Development agenda and the resistance to socialization programmes the AIDS crisis and the pharmaceutical industry Digital Rights Management This book will be of interest to students and researchers of international political economy international relations and intellectual property law

Regulatory Governance in Developing Countries Martin Minogue, Ledivina V. Cariño, 2006 The past decade has seen a quickening of the pace and extent of privatisation in developing countries This text critically reviews regulatory reforms in developing countries focusing on the strengths and weaknesses of the best practice model of reform

Governing International Labour Migration Christina Gabriel, Hélène Pellerin, 2008 This book offers a critical examination of the way in which the nature and governance of international labour migration is changing within a globalizing environment. It examines how labour mobility and the governance of labour migration are changing by exploring the links between political economy and differentiated forms of labour migration. Additionally, it considers the effects of new social models of inclusion and exclusion on labour migration. Therefore, the book troubles the conventional dichotomies and categorizations: permanent vs temporary, skilled vs unskilled, legal vs illegal, that have informed migration studies and regulatory frameworks. Theoretically, this volume contributes to an ongoing project of reframing the study of migration within politics and international relations. Bringing together an interdisciplinary group of scholars drawing on examples from the European Union, North America, and Asia, Governing International Labour Migration will be of interest to students and scholars of migration studies, IPE, international relations, and economics. American Book Publishing Record, 2004

From Pinochet to the 'Third Way'
Marcus Taylor, 2006-06-20. This is a comprehensive analysis of three decades of neoliberal policies in Chile from the Pinochet dictatorship until today. Chile is often described as a model of neoliberal development policy. Marcus Taylor questions this description. Examining the contradictions of neoliberalism, he demonstrates how it has created a society that is deeply ridden with inequalities. Taylor shows how the tensions that arose from this social inequality led to the emergence of a Third Way neoliberalism in the post-dictatorship period. Taylor argues that this new development paradigm has failed. This is a result of the inability of Third Way neoliberalism to transform social relationships and institutions. The nature of this failure affects the direction of popular movements for social change in Latin America during a time of renewed social and political upheaval.
