A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance Southwestern Women Writers and the Vision of Goodness Catharine Savage Brosman, 2016-07-25 This literary history focuses on five women writers Mary Austin Willa Cather Laura Adams Armer Peggy Pond Church and Alice Marriott whose work appeared from around 1900 through the 1980s All came from or lived and worked in California Arizona New Mexico or Oklahoma The book situates them in their time and place and examines their interactions with landscapes people art and history Their interest in fine arts and native arts and crafts is stressed as well as their concern for the environment Painting Texas History to 1900 Sam DeShong Ratcliffe, 2014-11-06 Certificate of Commendation American Association for State and Local History 1994 T R Fehrenbach Book Award Texas Historical Commission 1992 San Antonio Conservation Society Citation 1993 Dramatic historical events have frequently provided subject matter for artists particularly in pre twentieth century Texas where works portraying historical often legendary events and individuals predominated Until now however these paintings of Texas history have never received the kind of study given to historical fictional and film versions of the same events Painting Texas History to 1900 fills this gap with an interdisciplinary approach that explores these paintings both as works of art and as historical documents The author examines the works of more than forty artists including Henry McArdle Theodore Gentilz Robert Onderdonk William Huddle Frederic Remington Friedrich Richard Petri Arthur T Lee Seth Eastman Sarah Hardinge Frank Reaugh W G M Samuel Carl G von Iwonski and Julius Stockfleth He places each work within its historical and cultural context to show why such subject matter was chosen why it was depicted in a particular way and why such a depiction gained popular acceptance For example paintings of heroic events of the Texas Revolution were especially popular in the years following the Civil War when in Ratcliffe s view Texans needed such images to assuage the loss of the war and the humiliation of Reconstruction Though the paintings cut across traditional art history categories from the pictographs of early historic Indians to European inspired oil paintings they are bound together by their artists intent for them to function as historically evocative documents With their visual narratives of events that characterized all of America s westward expansion Indian encounters military battles farming ranching surveying and the closing of the frontier these works add an important chapter to the story of the American West Translating Southwestern Landscapes Audrey Goodman, 2016-02 Examines how the Southwest emerged as a symbolic cultural space for Anglos from 1880 through the early decades of the twentieth century particularly in the works of amateur ethnographer Charles Lummis pulp novelist Zane Grey translator of
