The Flood From Heaven Deciphering The Atlantis Legend:

The Flood from Heaven Eberhard Zangger,1992 Argues that the story of Atlantis is in actuality an ancient Egyptian account of the Trojan War The Flood from Heaven Eberhard Zangger,1992 Invented Knowledge Ronald H. Fritze,2009-05-15 This incredible exploration of the murky world of pseudo history reveals the mix of proven facts informed speculation and pure fiction behind lost continents ancient super civilizations and conspiratorial cover ups as well as the revisionist historical foundations of religions such as the Nation of Islam and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints Drawing on the best scholarship available Ronald H Fritze shows that in spite of strong mainstream historical evidence to the contrary many of these ideas have proved durable and gained widespread acceptance As the examples in Invented Knowledge reveal pseudo historians capitalize on and exploit anomalies in evidence to support their claims rather than examining the preponderance of research as a whole One Book, The Whole Universe Richard D. Mohr,2010-05-05 The much anticipated anthology on Plato's Timaeus Plato's singular dialogue on the creation of the universe the nature of the physical world and the place of persons in the cosmos examining all dimensions of one of the most important books in Western Civilization its philosophy cosmology science and ethics its literary aspects and reception Contributions come from leading scholars in their respective fields including Sir Anthony Leggett 2003 Nobel Laureate for Physics Parts of or earlier versions of these papers were first presented at the Timaeus Conference held at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign in September of 2007 To this day Plato's Timaeus grounds the form of ethical and political thinking called Natural Law the view that there are norms in nature that provide the patterns for our actions and ground the objectivity of human values Beyond the intellectual content of the dialogue's core its literary frame is also the source of the myth of Atlantis giving the West the concept of the lost world The Greatest Inventions of the Past 2,000 Years John Brockman,2000 The responses of some of the world's leading scientists and creative thinkers vary from the computer to the eraser from movable type to classical music from the lens to counting systems from the concepts of free will to democracy Celebrating Homer's Landscapes John Victor Luce,1998-01-01 In this text an authority on Homeric texts takes us on a tour of the main localities that Homer paints in his Iliad and Odyssey Providing numerous photographs of the terrain and quoting liberally from the two epics J V Luce argues that Homer's descriptions of the ancient landscape far from being poetic fantasies are accurate in every detail Luce surveys what Homer tells us about the environs of Troy and Ithaca applying the developing science of narratology to Homeric depiction of landscape He also incorporates information about Troy that has been obtained in the past two decades in particular geophysical information about the alluviation of the Trojan plain and archaeological data about Troy that reveals that the fortified area of the city was ten times as large as previously supposed Tracing the ebb and flow of the battle as described in the Iliad Luce shows how Homer's account is consistent with this picture of the plain The Oxford Companion to Archaeology Neil Asher Silberman,Alexander A. Bauer,Cornelius
