nature of teaching and learning creative writing and covers various genres. Writers and Their Notebooks Diana M. Raab, 2018-05-01 Personal reflections on the vital role of the notebook in creative writing from Dorianne Laux, Sue Grafton, John Dufresne, Kyoko Mori and more. This collection of essays by established professional writers explores how their notebooks serve as their studios and workshops places to collect, to play and to make new discoveries with language, passions and curiosities. For these diverse writers the journal also serves as an ideal forum to develop their writing voice whether crafting fiction, nonfiction or poetry. Some include sample journal entries that have since developed into published pieces. Through their individual approaches to keeping a notebook the contributors offer valuable advice, personal recollections and a hearty endorsement of the value of using notebooks to document, develop and nurture a writer's creative spark. African American Journalists Calvin L. Hall, 2009-07-01 In the last decade of the 20th century during a time when African Americans were starting to take inventory of the gains of the civil rights movement and its effects on the lives of black professionals in the public sphere the memoirs of several journalists were published a number of which became national bestsellers. African American Journalists examines select autobiographies written by African American journalists in order to explore the relationship between race, class, gender and journalism practice. At the heart of this study is the contention that contemporary memoirs written by African American journalists are quasi political documents/manifestos written in reaction to and against the forces of institutionalized racism in the newsroom. The memoirs featured in this study include Jill Nelson's Volunteer Slavery: My Authentic Negro Experience, Nathan McCall's Makes Me Wanna Holler: A Young Black Man in America, Jake Lamar's Bourgeois Blues: An American Memoir and Patricia Raybon's My First White Friend: Confessions on Race, Love and Forgiveness. The exploration of these works increases our understanding of the problems that members of other underrepresented groups may face in the workplace.

Tell It Slant: Writing and Shaping Creative Nonfiction Brenda Miller, Suzanne Paola, 2004-09-16 Creative nonfiction is the fastest growing segment in the writing market. Yet the majority of writing guides are geared toward poetry and fiction writers. Tell It Slant fills the gap. Designed for aspiring nonfiction writers this much-needed reference provides practical guidance, writing exercises and a detailed discussion of the range of subcategories that make up the genre including memoir, travel writing, investigative reporting and more.

Writing on the Edge, 2007 The Far Edges of the Fourth Genre Sean Prentiss, Joe Wilkins, 2014-03-01 Though creative nonfiction has been around since Montaigne, St. Augustine and Seneca we've only just begun to ask how this genre works, why it functions

the way it does and where its borders reside But for each question we ask another five or ten questions roil to the surface And each of these questions it seems requires a more convoluted series of answers What's more the questions students of creative nonfiction are drawn to during class discussions the ones they argue the longest and loudest are the same ideas debated by their professors in the hallways and at the corner bar In this collection sixteen essential contemporary creative nonfiction writers reflect on whatever far dark edge of the genre they find themselves most drawn to The result is this fascinating anthology that wonders at the historical and contemporary borderlands between fiction and nonfiction the illusion of time on the page the mythology of memory poetry process and the use of received forms the impact of technology on our writerly lives immersive research and the power of witness a chronology and collage and what we write and why we write Contributors Nancer Ballard H Lee Barnes Kim Barnes Mary Clearman Blew Joy Castro Robin Hemley Judith Kitchen Brenda Miller Ander Monson Dinty W Moore Sean Prentiss Lia Purpura Erik Reece Jonathan Rovner Bob Shacochis and Joe Wilkins
