feel so self conscious There were another pair of eyes not such beautiful sparkling eyes deep set earnest sad nay even gloomy watching her every movement but of this she was not aware Philip had not recovered from the rebuff she had given him by refusing his offered hand and was standing still in angry silence when Mrs Corney thrust a young woman just arrived upon his attention from Chapter XII New Year s Fte As interest in 19th century English literature by women has been reinvigorated by a resurgence in popularity of the works of Jane Austen readers are rediscovering a writer whose fiction once widely beloved fell by the wayside British novelist ELIZABETH CLEGHORN GASKELL 1810 1865 whose books were sometimes initially credited to simply Mrs Gaskell is now recognized as having created some of the most complex and broadminded depictions of women in the literature of the age and is today justly celebrated for her precocious use of the regional dialect and slang of England s industrial North Sylvia s Lovers Gaskell s fifth novel first published in 1863 is the melodramatic tale of a star crossed romantic triangle between farmgirl Sylvia Robson and the two men who love her her cousin Philip and sailor Charlie Kinread Though today considered one of Gaskell s minor works the author herself called Sylvia s Lovers the saddest story I ever wrote Friend and literary companion to such figures as Charles Dickens and Charlotte Bront the latter of whom Gaskell wrote an applauded 1857 biography Gaskell is today being restored to her rightful place alongside her This delightful replica volume is an excellent opportunity for 21st century fans of British literature to embrace one of its most unjustly forgotten authors Svědectví, 1978 The Familiar Essay, Romantic Affect and Metropolitan Culture Simon Peter Hull, 2018-06-11 Through close readings of diverse examples by Lamb De Quincey Hazlitt Irving and Poe this book argues that the familiar essay in the Romantic period embodies a quintessentially metropolitan mode of affect The generic traits of the essay astuteness of observation an ambulatory or paratactic movement of thought and an urbane tone of wry or ironic humour all predispose it to the expression of a detached non pathological state of mind This is a mind conditioned by the quickened pace assorted humanity and plenitude of spectacle which characterise urban and urbanised life In making a valuable genre based contribution to scholarship on the importance to Romantic studies of the city and metropolitan culture the traditional concept of Romantic affect is reassessed The book proposes a more complex and varied model than the simple binary one of a feeling reaction to Enlightenment reason Partly enacted within its own formal parameters and partly through its disruptive and genre transcending progeny the essayistic figure the familiar essay articulates a blithe and at times shocking and provocative discourse of un affect or a strategically and often satirical callousness Therefore the overall concept of affect in this period needs to be understood not as a unified entity opposed to Enlightenment reason but a dialogue between concurrent opposing modes played out against a dichotomized geo cultural landscape of the country and the city Essayistic un affect emerges in the end as an apolitical phenomenon a primary vehicle for the essayist s inherent scepticism sometimes enabling outright ridicule and at other times a tentative questioning or probing of both orthodox thought and emerging ideas from the rarefied liberalist sensibility of the Lake poets to the hubristic
