The Fox North Coalition Crisis Of The Constitution 1782 4:

The Fox-North Coalition John Cannon, 2008-09-11 Dr Cannon studies the workings of the eighteenth century constitution concentrating on the years of acute crisis from 1782 to 1784 He examines the formation of the Fox North coalition its achievement of office in March 1783 and the manoeuvres by which it was eventually ousted In doing so he throws light on several obscure questions such as the reasons for Shelburne's unpopularity the part played by William Pitt over the India Bill based on hitherto unused manuscripts in the Bodleian Library and the causes of Lord Temple's resignation in December 1783 Dr Cannon shows that these were critical years in the evolution of political parties and contributes evidence towards an assessment of the careers of Lord North Charles Fox and William Pitt The Fox-North Coalition John Cannon, 1969

Beattie,2012-02-09 This is the first comprehensive study of the Bow Street Runners a group of men established in the middle of the eighteenth century by Henry Fielding with the financial support of the government to confront violent offenders on the streets and highways around London They were developed over the following decades by his half brother John Fielding into what became a well known and stable group of officers who acquired skill and expertise in investigating crime tracking and arresting offenders and in presenting evidence at the Old Bailey the main criminal court in London They were Beattie argues detectives in all but name Fielding also created a magistrates court that was open to the public at stated times every day A second intimately related theme in the book concerns attitudes and ideas about the policing of London more broadly particularly from the 1780s when the detective and prosecutorial work of the runners came to be challenged by arguments in favour of the prevention of crime by surveillance and other means The last three chapters of the book continue to follow the runners work but at the same time are concerned with discussions of the larger structure of policing in London in parliament in the Home Office and in the press These discussions were to intensify after 1815 in the face of a sharp increase in criminal prosecutions They led in a far from straightforward way to a fundamental reconstitution of the basis of policing in the capital by Robert Peel s Metropolitan Police Act of 1829 The runners were not immediately affected by the creation of the New Police but indirectly it led to their disbandment a decade later
