The Freedom Of God A Study Of Election And Pulpit:

The Freedom of God James Daane,1973-10-22 The doctrine of election is one of the most difficult in all of Christian theology It is also one of the most prominent doctrines for the election of Israel Christ and the church is a theme that runs through the Scriptures Yet notes James Daane election is rarely preached from the pulpit In The Freedom of God Daane offers an explanation for this curious silence presents a corrective to the scholasticism that has infected Reformed theology and argues that the doctrine of election is in fact preached whenever Christ is faithfully proclaimed Interacting with such major Reformed theologians as Bavinck Hoeksema VanTil and others Daane here offers a clear biblically based truly Reformed understanding of the crucial significance of election in relation to preaching Karl Barth in North America

John Peter Lewis,2009-04-01 This study looks at the formation of theology as it emerges out of biography Indeed the biography of the theologian is the key to unlocking the meaning of his or her writings and a valuable tool for a thorough investigation of their work There will be a focus on the biography of Karl Barth and how this relates to his theological writings Attention will then be turned on a group of North American theologians to analyze how Barth s theology has influenced their personal experiences and corresponding theologies The personal experience of the theologian provides the background to the theological judgments she or he makes and therefore provides valuable insight into what she or he has written Experiences in the theologian s life determine how she or he forms and communicates the ideas that the experiences have given rise to Indeed theologians profoundly connect with readers as they write theology as an expression of their experiences of faith Therefore this book contends that there is a necessary connection to be made between the theologian as a person and the theology that emerges out of her or his unique biography Indeed it will be argued that theology is born out of the lived encounters of the theologian that develop into the kind of personal convictions passions concerns questions and a motivation to connect with others that is evident in her or his writing Consequently theology and theologian are inseparable
