Independent Filmmaking across Borders in Contemporary Asia Ran Ma, 2025-10-01 Independent Filmmaking across Borders in Contemporary Asia examines an array of auteur-driven fiction and documentary independent film projects that have emerged since the turn of the millennium from East and Southeast Asia, a strand of transnational filmmaking that converges with Asia's vibrant yet unevenly developed independent film movements amidst global neoliberalism. These projects bear witness to and are shaped by the ongoing historical processes of inter-Asia interaction, characterized by geopolitical realignment, migration, and population displacement. This study threads together case studies of internationally acclaimed filmmakers, artists, and collectives such as Zhang Lu, Kuzoku Li Ying, Takamine Go, Yamashiro Chikako, and Midi Z, all of whose transborder journeys and cinematic imaginations disrupt static identity affiliations built upon national, ethnic, or cultural differences This border crossing filmmaking can be viewed as both an aesthetic practice and a political act reframing how people places and their interconnections can be perceived thereby opening up possibilities to reimagine Asia and its connections to globalization

A Special Illumination Rollan McCleary, 2004 Gay spirituality represents a hidden strand in Western thought that was only publically declared from the Gay Liberation of the 1970s Since coming out expressions of gay spirituality have proliferated in both number and diversity Beginning with gay theology within Christianity the phenomenon has now reached as far as Buddhism and neo paganism But so far critical analysis of the movement has been very limited largely because gay spirituality has been treated as a political and social movement arguing for rights and acceptance within religious circles A Special Illumination offers an indepth analysis and argues that gay spirituality should be placed at the heart of religion Rheingold, a Romantic Legend John Baldwin Fosbroke,1873 Adventure at Hidden Haven Ranch Mary E.
