

FASHION

Style And Difference:

Style Differences in Cognition, Learning, and Management Stephen Rayner, Eva Cools, 2012-12-06 This book aims to mark fifteen years of contributions to the field of style research in cognition and learning presented at the annual conference of the European Learning Styles Information Network The style field is a multidisciplinary global community made up of researchers in several domains of knowledge including education psychology business computer science information systems management human resources and other related fields The book will be relevant for readers who are interested in differences in thinking and learning covering a wide range of style related themes with appeal to readers seeking an international and interdisciplinary perspective Interested practitioners will include professionals working in the areas of HR Management Organizational Learning Business Management and all phases of Education The application of style differences for example impacts widely upon work and human performance in areas of policy making team management and project development sports social agency and medicine New or alternative research paradigms facilitating revision and consensus in the field of style differences are presented The aim of integrating research and practice is developed to achieve consensual theory for style differences in human performance Style Differences in Performance is a timely and field defining volume that will change the way academics and practitioners across international and disciplinary boundaries think and talk about the field of learning style and its implications for human achievement

Style, Mediation, and Change Janus Mortensen, Nikolas Coupland, Jacob Thøgersen, 2017 Technologically mediated talk is organized around familiar styles styles of person relationship and genre But media also consistently remake and re style these familiar patterns This book brings together original research on media styling in different national contexts and languages written by authors at the forefront of sociolinguistic research on mediated talk It highlights and theorizes how creative acts of mediated styling can promote social and sociolinguistic change The globalized world is already massively mediatized what we know about language people and society is necessarily shaped through our engagement with media But talking media are caught up in wider currents of rapid change too Creative innovations in media styling can heighten reflexive awareness but they can also unsettle existing understandings of language society relations In reporting new investigations by expert researchers this book gives an original and timely account of how style media and change need to be integrated further to advance the discipline of sociolinguistics
