The Killing Club:

Stop the Killing Katherine Schweit, 2021-08-15 Stop the Killing offers insight into what each of us can do to end the active shooter crisis plaguing America Written by the former head of the FBI's active shooter program Katherine Schweit shares an insider look at what we've learned and failed to learn about protecting our businesses houses of worship and schools The book demystifies the language around active shooters mass killings threat assessment teams and more Never gathered before into one place readers gain access to evidence based research and the most up to date information as they travel step by step through shooting prevention efforts and shooting aftermaths Beginning with an understanding of how to spot potential shooters readers learn the many ways to prevent shootings and the role threat assessment teams play Threat assessment experts provide insight on what kind of information they need and how they use it to intercept a person on a pathway to violence The book guides readers through the process of assessing building security weaknesses and shows how to find vulnerabilities in people programs and policies Packed with practical advice for training every age from preschoolers to elementary school children to adults the book also includes the author's own teaching outline on how to train people to run hide fight The book gathers together examples to help build individualized emergency operations plans and shows how to tap vast government resources to cover costs to your office and employees districts and students and survivors and victim's families Hear sober advice gathered from those who have survived and responded to shootings at Columbine High School Virginia Tech Sandy Hook Elementary School the Aurora theater Los Angeles International Airport and more Their common theme is that it can happen anywhere and has All the more reason to accept that as each of us better understand what happens and how to prevent it we can be the ones to stop the killing The book also features a new preface exploring the 2021 school shooting tragedy in Michigan especially the groundbreaking use of a domestic terrorism charge filed against the shooter and involuntary manslaughter charges filed against his parents

The Killing Kind John Connolly, 2002-09-13

Troubled ex cop turned private investigator Charlie Parker returns in the latest compulsively readable Publishers Weekly thriller from 1 internationally bestselling author John Connolly John Connolly takes battered ex cop Charlie Parker on his third outing after Every Dead Thing and Dark Hollow Still struggling with the horrific ghosts of his past Parker is now a disillusioned private eye hired to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of Grace Peltier which neither her father nor a former US Senator believe was suicide The trail leads to a mass grave in northern Maine where a Baptist community disappeared forty years earlier The deaths of the Baptists and Grace are connected and point in the direction of a shadowy organization known as the Fellowship With the assistance of some idiosyncratic and murderous acolytes Parker soon confronts the Fellowship's demonic leader and finds himself caught in a situation more gruesome than even he could ever have imagined

The Killing Wind Tan Hecheng, 2016-12-14 Over the course of 66 days in 1967 more than 4 000 class enemies including young children and the elderly were murdered in Daoxian a county in China's Hunan province The killings

spread to surrounding counties resulting in a combined death toll of more than 9 000 Commonly known as the Daoxian massacre the killings were one of many acts of so called mass dictatorship and armed factional conflict that rocked China during the Cultural Revolution However in spite of the scope and brutality of the killings there are few detailed accounts of mass killings in China's countryside during the Cultural Revolution's most tumultuous years Years after the massacre journalist Tan Hecheng was sent to Daoxian to report on an official investigation into the killings Tan was prevented from publishing his findings in China but in 2010 he published the Chinese edition of The Killing Wind in Hong Kong Tan's first hand investigation of the atrocities accumulated over the course of more than 20 years blends his research with the recollections of survivors to provide a vivid account exploring how and why the massacre took place and describing its aftermath Dispelling the heroic aura of class struggle Tan reveals that most of the Daoxian massacre's victims were hard working peaceful members of the rural middle class blacklisted as landlords or rich peasants Tan also describes how political pressure and brainwashing turned ordinary people into heartless killing machines More than a catalog of horrors The Killing Wind is also a poignant meditation on memory moral culpability and the failure of the Chinese government to come to terms with the crimes of the Maoist era By painting a detailed portrait of this massacre Tan makes a broader argument about the long term consequences of the Cultural Revolution one of the most violent political movements of the twentieth century A compelling testament to the victims and survivors of the Daoxian massacre The Killing Wind is a monument to historical truth one that fills an immense gap in our understanding of the Mao era the Cultural Revolution and the status of truth in contemporary China
