The Lad who Made the Princess Laugh Jane Belk Moncure, 1980-01-01 Retells the tale of the peasant lad whose generosity brought him great rewards.

Stockings of Buttermilk Neil Philip, 1999 This handsome volume brings together eighteen American stories from eleven states, all of which are based on traditional tales of the European cultures that had the earliest influence on this country: the British Isles, France, Spain, and Germany. Some stories are variants of familiar favorites like Snow White, A Stepchild That Was Treated Mightily Bad, while others like The Little Bull with the Golden Horns are less well known. Some are funny, some poignant. All share a characteristic freshness, energy, and informality that mark them as purely American. Vividly colored illustrations in the style of American folk art add humor and charm to this collection of lively colloquial tales that just beg to be read aloud. An authoritative introduction and notes place each in its folkloric context.
