How Children Make Art George Székely, 2006 With his unique and refreshing perspective Székely shows educators how to use ideas from home art and play activities as the basis for a school art program that is meaningful to children. The author presents memorable descriptions and inspiring moments from a lifetime of studying children's home art all to introduce readers to a wealth of art teaching possibilities. In these pages we learn what happens when children entering the art room are treated as colleagues bringing their own ideas to an art curriculum that doesn't overshadow them with adult art plans and teachings about adult artists
