The Ladder Of Love:

International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research. This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives. It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines. It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love, agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts. It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation, globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution. The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love, aging, health, special needs, sexual preferences, spiritual practice, subcultures, family and other relationships, and so on. The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces. This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers, practitioners and students of the social sciences, humanities and behavioural sciences. In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture. This volume is as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures. It proves otherwise. The authors' revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is. But that's what love does. It communicates what is, offers what can be and pleads for what must be. I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do. Jeffrey Ady, Associate Professor, retired Public Administration Program, University of Hawaii at Manoa, Founding Fellow, International Academy for Intercultural Research. The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium. It is a breath-taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love. It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love, one-night stands, teen romance or love of leaders and many more. This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies. Eva Illouz, author of The End of Love: A Sociology of Negative Relationships (Oxford University Press). This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies. Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort, a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts, personal and professional settings and cultures. The work is well referenced, providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration. We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is, this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives.
