The Lady From Shanghai:

Orson Welles Randy Rasmussen, 2014-08-21 Orson Welles a self conscious storyteller who often invited his audience to question the methods and veracity of what they see and hear He was that rare magician who both pulled the wool over our eyes for our delight and unravelled the wool before our eyes encouraging us to ponder the nature of the magic itself Many of the characters in Welles s movies can also be seen as magicians of a sort creating impressions intended to manipulate other characters or even themselves in one direction or another But unlike Welles few of them voluntarily expose their tricks to the scrutiny of their victims Six major Welles films Citizen Kane The Magnificent Ambersons The Lady from Shanghai Touch of Evil The Trial and Chimes at Midnight receive a scene by scene analysis in this critical study From a viewer s perspective it illuminates the dramatic rhythms of each film as they unfold on screen and from the soundtrack Frequent analogies to other movies and pertinent quotations from the impressions of other commentators broaden the text but always within the scene by scene progression dictated by the film under discussion Being Rita Hayworth Adrienne L. McLean, 2004 Being Rita Hayworth considers the ways in which this actress has been treated by film scholarship over the years to accomplish its own goals sometimes at her expense The Final Four of Everything Mark Reiter, Richard Sandomir, 2009-12-15 Edited by Mark Reiter and Richard Sandomir and featuring contributions from experts on everything from breakfast cereal and movie gunfights to First Ladies and bald guys The Final Four of Everything celebrates everything that s great surprising or silly in America using the foolproof method of bracketology to determine what we love or hate and why As certain to make you laugh as it will start friendly arguments The Final Four of Everything is the perfect book for know it alls know a little and anyone with an opinion on celebrity mugshots literary heroes sports nicknames or bacon Bracketology is a unique way of organizing information that dates back to the rise of the knockout or single elimination tournament perhaps in medieval times Its origins are not precisely known but there was genius in the first bracket design that hasn t changed much over the years You of course may be familiar with the bracket format via the NCAA basketball tournament pairings each March If you ve ever watched ESPN or participated in a March Madness office pool you know what a bracket looks like The Final Four of Everything takes the idea one step further and applies the knockout format to every category BUT basketball In areas where taste judgment and hard earned wisdom really matter we ve set out to determine truly the Final Four of Everything Film Noir Compendium Alain Silver, 2024-01-11 In this essential study of film noir editors Alain Silver and James Ursini select the most significant and influential articles on the movement from their highly respected Film Noir Reader series and assemble them into a single convenient heavily illustrated volume Still included of course are many rare early articles and such seminal essays as Borde and Chaumeton s Towards a Definition of Film Noir from Panorama du Film Noir Americain Paul Schrader s Notes on Film Noir and Paint It Black the Family Tree of the Film Noir by Raymond Durgnat With newer studies such as Lounge Time by Vivian Sobchack Manufacturing Heroines in Classic Noir Films by Sheri Chinen Biesen and Voices from the
