The Land And The Sea:

The Land We Live in Charles Francis King, 1896 The Practical Teacher , 1885 A World at Sea Lauren Benton, Nathan Perl-Rosenthal, 2020-10-09 The past twenty five years have brought a dramatic expansion of scholarship in maritime history including new research on piracy long distance trade and seafaring cultures Yet maritime history still inhabits an isolated corner of world history according to editors Lauren Benton and Nathan Perl Rosenthal Benton and Perl Rosenthal urge historians to place the relationship between maritime and terrestrial processes at the center of the field and to analyze the links between global maritime practices and major transformations in world history A World at Sea consists of nine original essays that sharpen and expand our understanding of practices and processes across the land sea divide and the way they influenced global change The first section highlights the regulatory order of the seas as shaped by strategies of land based polities and their agents and by conflicts at sea The second section studies documentary practices that aggregated and conveyed information about sea voyages and encounters and it traces the wide ranging impact of the explosion of new information about the maritime world Probing the political symbolism of the land sea divide as a threshold of power the last section features essays that examine the relationship between littoral geographies and sociolegal practices spanning land and sea Maritime history the contributors show matters because the oceans were key sites of experimentation innovation and disruption that reflected and sparked wide ranging global change Contributors Lauren Benton Adam Clulow Xing Hang David Iglar Jeppe Mulich Lisa Norling Nathan Perl Rosenthal Carla Rahn Phillips Catherine Phipps Matthew Raffety Margaret Schotte A Treatise on the Law of Navigable Rivers Louis Houck, 1868 Select Cases and Other Authorities on the Law of Property John Chipman Gray, 1889 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ... , 1898 Advances in Marine Environmental Protection: Challenges, Solutions and Perspectives Mehran Idris Khan, Yen-Chiang Chang, Wen-Hong Liu, 2025-04-29 Environments have no boundaries and no borders Managing oceanic environments particularly the threats and risks of pollution should also consider the shared responsibility of all coastal states Emerging issues for oceanic pollution governance include global changes like rising temperature ocean acidification but also disturbances of ecosystem functioning by plastic and pollution by other emerging contaminants for example noise pollution and deep sea mining These call for efficient and sustainable prevention and restoration strategies such as such as efficient urban and industrial sewage treatment plants efficiently administered transnational marine protected areas and among others sustainable aquaculture extensive small scale fisheries Environmental protection warrants the development of interrelationships between marine sciences relevant industries and ocean governance developing internationally accepted rules and regulations for sustainable ocean management This Research Topic will explore possible new domains of ocean governance and the marine environment from the interdisciplinary perspectives of the rule of law including the international agreement on equal conventions the Convention on Facilitation of International Maritime Traffic the Convention on the

How competing visions of world order in the 1940s gave rise to the modern concept of globalism During and after the Second World War public intellectuals in Britain and the United States grappled with concerns about the future of democracy the prospects of liberty and the decline of the imperial system Without using the term globalization they identified a shift toward technological economic cultural and political interconnectedness and developed a globalist ideology to reflect this new postwar reality The Emergence of Globalism examines the competing visions of world order that shaped these debates and led to the development of globalism as a modern political concept Shedding critical light on this neglected chapter in the history of political thought Or Rosenboim describes how a transnational network of globalist thinkers emerged from the traumas of war and expatriation in the 1940s and how their ideas drew widely from political philosophy geopolitics economics imperial thought constitutional law theology and philosophy of science She presents compelling portraits of Raymond Aron Owen Lattimore Lionel Robbins Barbara Wootton Friedrich Hayek Lionel Curtis Richard McKeon Michael Polanyi Lewis Mumford Jacques Maritain Reinhold Niebuhr H G Wells and others Rosenboim shows how the globalist debate they embarked on sought to balance the tensions between a growing recognition of pluralism on the one hand and an appreciation of the unity of humankind on the other An engaging look at the ideas that have shaped today s world The Emergence of Globalism is a major work of intellectual history that is certain to fundamentally transform our understanding of the globalist ideal and its origins Women Working In The Environment Carolyn E.
