

A woman with dark hair, wearing a black shirt with pink and white floral patterns, is crouching in a shallow stream. She is washing a large, peeled bamboo stalk. The water is clear, and the surrounding landscape is lush and green. In the foreground, there are more bamboo stalks, some still in their husks. The background shows a steep, rocky bank with green vegetation and a blue sky.

The Teaching of Anthropology Conrad Phillip Kottak, 1997 This collection brings together articles first developed for the symposia on teaching held by the American Anthropological Association in 1990 1991 and 1992 as well as additional papers from over 40 leading teachers in the field The articles span the educational continuum from teaching the introductory course to teaching pre collegiate instructors As a professional reference text it is a book that no current or future teacher of anthropology should be without Homo Novus - A Human Without Illusions Ulrich J. Frey, Charlotte Störmer, Kai P. Willführ, 2010-08-24 Converging evidence from disciplines including sociobiology evolutionary psychology and human biology forces us to adopt a new idea of what it means to be a human As cherished concepts such as free will naïve realism humans as creations crowning glory fall and our moral roots in ape group dynamics become clearer we have to take leave of many concepts that have been central to defining our humanness What emerges is a new human the homo novus a human being without illusions Leading authors from many different fields explore these issues by addressing a range of illusions and providing evidence for the need despite considerable reluctance to relinquish some of our most cherished ideas about ourselves Catalogue: Authors Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology. Library, 1963 Its outstanding feature is the inclusion of journal articles For more than 50 years the periodicals have been indexed as well as compilations such as Festschriften and the proceedings of congresses Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 The Routledge International Handbook of Ethnographic Film and Video Phillip Vannini, 2020-04-02 The Routledge International Handbook of Ethnographic Film and Video is a state of the art book which encompasses the breadth and depth of the field of ethnographic film and video based research With more and more researchers turning to film and video as a key element of their projects and as research video production becomes more practical due to technological advances as well as the growing acceptance of video in everyday life this critical book supports young researchers looking to develop the skills necessary to produce meaningful ethnographic films and videos and serves as a comprehensive resource for social scientists looking to better understand and appreciate the unique ways in which film and video can serve as ways of knowing and as tools of knowledge mobilization Comprised of 31 chapters authored by some of the world's leading experts in their respective fields the book's contributors synthesize existing literature introduce the historical and conceptual dimensions of the field illustrate innovative methodologies and techniques survey traditional and new technologies reflect on ethics and moral imperatives outline ways to work with people objects and tools and shape the future agenda of the field With a particular focus on making ethnographic film and video as opposed to analyzing or critiquing it from a variety of methodological approaches and styles the Handbook provides both a comprehensive introduction and up to date survey of the field for a vast variety of audiovisual researchers such as scholars and students in sociology anthropology geography communication and media studies education cultural studies film studies visual arts and related social science and humanities As such it will appeal to a multidisciplinary and international audience and features a dynamic forward thinking innovative and contemporary focus oriented toward the very latest developments in the field as well as future possibilities Early Life Thom Holmes, 2008 Discusses the Cambrian era in Earth's history when the first forms of life appeared and began to flourish and evolve Hegemonies of Language and Their Discontents Carlos G. Vélez-Ibáñez, 2017-12-12 The book provides a unique and broad look at the history power duality and promise of Spanish and English in the U S Mexico borderlands Provided by publisher The Trouble with Human Nature Elizabeth D. Whitaker, 2017-02-03 The Trouble with Human Nature brings together biological and cross cultural evidence to critically examine common preconceptions and challenge popular assumptions about human nature It sets out to counter genetic and evolutionary myths about human variation and behavior drawing on both biological and cultural anthropology as well as from other disciplines including psychology economics and sociology The chapters address the interrelated topics of health and disease gender and other differences and violence and conflict The analysis calls into question the presumed natural foundation for social inequalities and sheds light on both the constraints and possibilities inherent in the human condition This book provides students of human diversity and evolution with an excellent resource to better approach questions relating to human nature It will also be of interest to those taking courses in social cultural and biological anthropology as well as public health medical anthropology sociology gender studies psychology and kinship studies Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70
