The King Who Understood Animals:

JONAH Andries Lievaart, 2019-07-02 This Bible study is different from all the other books written about Jonah In order to understand the book of Jonah in a proper way it is first necessary to understand that God s initial plan was not to send Jonah to Nineveh but that God had a different plan for Jonah This book explains in a clear way and based on Bible scriptures what God s plan for Jonah was The book also explains why there was a storm at sea and the deeper meaning of Jonah being swallowed and spat out by the fish This book explains that the story of Jonah really happened and is not just a story But most of all it is explained that the Book of Jonah is written by God to express His mercy and grace with mankind through His Son Jesus Christ Reading this book will give you a completely new perspective on the Bible story of Jonah The Four Gospels, as Interpreted by the Early Church Francis Henry Dunwell, 1876 Shakespeare's "Hamlet" Interpreted Mark
