in Europe and reflect on the postcard as a medium for historical research      Postcards from Mysore Somdatta Ghosh,2003 Mysore famous for its silks handicrafts and magnificent palaces and as the source of inspiration for the celebrated author R K Narayan is the royal jewel in the crown of the southern state of Karnataka Postcards from Mysore is a freewheeling account of travel though the city made famous by its indomitable ruler Tipu Sultan The travelogue is the ultimate companion that can accompany a traveller on his her sojourns to Mysore and its beautiful surroundings      Postcards from the Road Jonathan Day,2014-05-01 Walker Evans said in his 1958 introduction to Robert Frank s The Americans For the thousandth time it must be said that pictures speak for themselves wordlessly visually or they fail The images revolutionized post war American photography With their candid images of men and women from all classes and walks of life the photographs presented a very different story than that portrayed by the wholesome caricature of midcentury prosperity pervading American photography at the time Although initially dismissed by his peers for his pioneering work Frank was ultimately credited with changing the course of the art form and his photography holds a secure status in the history of twentieth century art And he did all this without words It seems appropriate then and not a little overdue that Jonathan Day has created a book that expounds explores and examines Frank s work pictorially Taking Frank s iconic images as his point of reference Day shot new photographs that commented on the road and contemporary America Here these images are paired with critical commentary that details the aspects of the work that are visually expounded and explained in Day s complementary images A visual entryway to the photographs and themes of this iconic book in the history of photography Postcards from the Road represents an innovative carefully considered departure from standard photographic textbooks      Chase Around the World Tiara Fay,2007      Fine Oriental Manuscripts and Miniatures Sotheby's (Firm),1984      Cold War Art Worlds Simone Wille,2025-11-05 During the Cold War the Central European capital city Prague along with other previously less noticed locations in the polarised post war world emerged as a key site where an art world of particular importance for artists from South Asia developed By emphasising cultural mobility as a catalyst for exchange and network building this book challenges and complicates assumptions about Cold War binaries of East and West and the polarisation between so called totalitarian regimes and free cultures Positioning Prague as a nexus where South Asian modernisms intersected with multiple peoples histories and ideologies in the post World War II era it offers a narrative of decolonisation that rejected rigid systemic alignment in favour of participation across blocs by prioritising migratory aesthetics over nationalist parochialism Well researched and rich in archival materials this book proposes new ways of writing art histories and makes a significant contribution to both Cold War studies and critical global modernism studies      Indian Popular Culture, "the Conquest of the World as Picture" Jyotindra Jain,2004 Catalogue of an exhibition      Catalogues of Sales Sotheby's (Firm),1985-02-05
