The Landscape Of Thomas Hardy:

The Landscape of Thomas Hardy Donald Maxwell, 1974 The Landscape of Thomas Hardy Denys Kay-Robinson, 1984 Thomas Hardy, Landscapes of the Mind Andrew Enstice, 1979 Hardy's Landscape Revisited Tony Fincham, 2010 Hardy was a landscape novelist who painted enduring pictures of a real outdoor world that formed the stage upon which his characters lived out their tragic lives Incorporating extracts from Hardy's poems and novels such as Return of the Native Far From the Madding Crowd and Under the Greenwood Tree this book consists of a series of walks through Hardy's landscapes It allows the reader to appreciate not only the beauty and wonder of the natural world but also the unique contribution that Thomas Hardy has made to our ability to interpret that world Hardy's landscapes are at once specific and general based on real places and scenes but purposefully distanced and disguised The author argues that Hardy's Wessex is actually a very narrow territory and in doing so he calls into question a number of accepted identifications of Wessex locations and proposes new ones Follow in the footsteps of Jude Tess and Clym and live and breathe the very essence of Thomas Hardy's world Publisher's description The Poetry of Landscape in Thomas Hardy Jeremy Robinson, 1990

Thurston Hopkins is a scholar deeply versed in English literature and the life of Thomas Hardy His extensive research into Hardy's works coupled with his passion for the Dorset region informs the depth of analysis presented in this volume With a keen awareness of the socio-historical factors that shaped Hardy's perspectives Hopkins provides a compelling lens through which to view this author's connection to his surroundings guiding readers toward a greater appreciation of the intertwined fates of writer and landscape This book is a must read for enthusiasts of Hardy's literature and scholars of English rural landscapes It offers an intimate exploration of the profound relationship between writer and environment making it invaluable for those seeking to enrich their understanding of Hardy's literary legacy and the enduring allure of Dorset itself Figures in a Wessex Landscape , 1995-09-01 Thomas Hardy Desmond Hawkins, 1990 This is an illustrated souvenir in which the story of Hardy's life is interwoven with the places that inspired his novels and poems A large number of these places are now in the care of the National Trust Thomas Hardy's Creative Use of the Landscape Robert Pountney, 1997 The Ashgate Research Companion to Thomas Hardy Rosemarie
